George Bradford Caird, 1995 Generations of students have known G B Caird as a penetrating and lucid guide to the many questions and problems posed by modern biblical study His brilliant commentaries on St Luke the Book of Revelation and St Paul's Prison Epistles as well as his other studies on theology and the Bible have won for him a place among the twentieth century's foremost biblical scholars This new and masterly presentation of New Testament theology completed and edited since the author's death by Professor L D Hurst takes the unique step of setting up an imaginary debate amongst the various authors of the New Testament themselves As central concepts predestination sin atonement the church sacrament ethics eschatology and christology are discussed between such figures as Luke Paul John and the author of Hebrews the work moves to its climax with a presentation of the theology of Jesus himself The result provides a particularly fresh and illuminating picture of the ideas at the heart of Christianity deserving a place on the shelf of every serious pastor theologian and student of the Bible The Tree of Life Roland E.
