Organizing Information in School Libraries

Cynthia Houston,2015-12-07 Covering both classification and cataloging principles as well as procedures relevant to school libraries this book provides a teaching kit for a course on this critical subject that includes content and practice exercises A valuable resource for instructors in LIS programs who teach courses in cataloguing with an emphasis on school libraries this textbook explains the nuts and bolts of classification and cataloging as well as the functionality of integrated library systems and how these systems critically serve the mission of the school Author Cynthia Houston covers Web 2.0 and the social networking features of these systems as well as examining in detail the principles and procedures for subject classification using Sears subject headings or Dewey Decimal Classification using the Sears tool This teaching tool kit addresses the cataloging of print materials audiovisual materials and electronic materials separately but all within the specific context of the school library It supplies a number of examples and exercises to reinforce the key concepts and skills as well as to demonstrate the real world applications of learning concepts and procedures Based directly on Houston's extensive experience in teaching classification and cataloging courses the included content and practice exercises enable instructors to use this book for content for instruction and for providing student feedback

Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Donna L. Gilton, 2016-06-21 Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Tools and Tips For Practitioners is the sequel to Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Principles Programs and People On the one hand Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses on the information needs and the developmental and psychological characteristics of diverse library users of all ages It endorses the use of ILI to promote lifelong learning in public libraries both by borrowing techniques from academic and school libraries and by building on existing public library traditions of programming and outreach This book also compares lifelong learning in public libraries to informal and nonformal education in museums community organizations and agencies places of worship and other organizations In addition Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries describes basic steps that librarians can execute in order to get started On the other hand Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses much more on how public librarians can specifically plan and implement their instruction with chapters on planning for instruction using teaching methodologies teaching with and about technology and bringing ILI together with more traditional public library services programming and activities such as reference and Readers Advisory services bibliotherapy and cultural and literacy programming Changes in ILI standards and comparisons of ILI with basic reading media digital and cultural literacies are also described Both books together should act as basic manuals for public librarians who promote lifelong learning Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries also have helpful teaching hints for all librarians and other professionals who teach in a variety of settings
