Media And Information Literacy Deped:

Developing Materials for Innovative Teaching and Sustainable Learning Andrzej Cirocki, Raichle Farrelly, Taylor Sapp, 2024-10-30 This volume features current innovative and effective ways of developing instructional materials for diverse English Language Teaching ELT contexts. It is divided into four sections each featuring pedagogical materials designed for specific groups of learners. The sections focus on materials for general English, ESP and EAP, CLIL and ELT teacher education courses. The chapters written by experienced educators from around the world are highly practical and detail the process of designing materials for innovative and sustainable language education. The contributors reflect on their own practice, describe the materials design process, explain the guiding principles and connect the design process with the local context and educational policies. They also offer practical tips to inspire classroom practitioners to create their own materials, promoting innovative teaching and sustainable learning. Ultimately, their chapters aim to encourage a world where teaching involves creativity and adaptability, leading to transformative learning for both teachers and learners.

Educating for the 21st Century Suzanne Choo, Deb Sawch, Alison Villanueva, Ruth Vinz, 2016-10-20

All over the world, governments, policymakers, and educators are advocating the need to educate students for the 21st century. This book provides insights into what this means and the ways 21st century education is theorized and implemented in practice. The first part, Perspectives: Mapping our futures in the making, uncovers the contradictions, tensions, and processes that shape 21st century education discourses. The second part, Policies: Constructing the future through policymaking, discusses how 21st century education is translated into policies and the resulting tensions that emerge from top down state sanctioned policies and bottom up initiatives. The third part, Practices: Enacting the Future in Local Contexts, discusses on the ground initiatives that schools in various countries around the world enact to educate their students for the 21st century. This volume includes contributions from leading scholars in the field as well as educators from schools and those working with schools.
