International Dispute Resolution Vesna Lazić, Steven Stuij, 2018-07-26 The contributions in this book cover a wide range of topics within modern dispute resolution which can be summarised as follows harmonisation enforcement and alternative dispute resolution In particular it looks into the impact of harmonised EU law on national rules of civil procedure and addresses the lack of harmonisation in the US regarding the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments Furthermore the law on enforcement is examined not only by focusing on US law but also on how to attach assets in order to enforce a judgment Finally it addresses certain types of alternative dispute resolution In addition the book looks into the systems and cultures of dispute resolution in several regions of the world such as the EU the US and China that have a high impact on globalisation Hence the book is diverse in the sense of dealing with multiple issues in the field of modern dispute resolution

The book offers explorations of the impact of international rules and EU law on domestic civil procedure through case studies from among others the US China Belgium and the Netherlands The relevance of EU law for the national debate and its impact on the regulation of civil procedure is also considered Furthermore several contributions discuss the necessity and possibility of harmonisation in the emergency arbitrator mechanisms in the EU The harmonisation of private international law rules within the EU particularly those of a procedural nature is juxtaposed to the lack thereof in the US Also the book offers an overview of the current dispute settlement mechanisms in China The publication is primarily meant for legal academics in private international law and civil procedure It will also prove useful to practitioners regularly engaged in cross border dispute resolution and will be of added value to advanced students as well as to those with an interest in international litigation and more generally in the area of dispute resolution Vesna Lazi is Senior Researcher at the T M C Asser Institute Associate Professor of Private Law at Utrecht University and Professor of European Civil Procedure at the University of Rijeka Steven Stuij is an expert in Private International Law and a PhD Candidate Guest Researcher at the Erasmus School of Law Rotterdam Ton Jongbloed is Guest Editor on this volume

Mediation in International Commercial and Investment Disputes Catharine Titi, Katia Fach Gómez, 2019 Until now the resolution of international commercial and investment disputes has been dominated almost exclusively by international arbitration But international mediation and conciliation are now coming to the fore This book brings together a line up of highly qualified experts to address this topical complex subject from a variety of angles International Commercial Mediation Cyril Chern, 2020-11-25 International Commercial Mediation is a practical guidebook that explains how to handle and complete a mediation as well as how to personally market the skills developed as a mediator The book provides examples supplies forms and explains procedures of actual working mediations which can be used to adapt to individual needs It also deals with advanced practitioner issues and the emerging law on international mediation EU Cross-Border Commercial Mediation Anna Howard, 2021-01-13 Despite the growing national and international regulatory framework to support cross border mediation the use of such mediation appears to remain stubbornly low This book focuses in particular on the European Union's EU's continued efforts to encourage the use of cross border mediation and examines why such efforts have had a limited impact It does so by drawing on rare and at times surprising detailed insights from in house counsel of multinational companies regarding their use of EU cross border commercial mediation By viewing mediation through the lens of disputants new and important findings regarding why disputants do and do not use cross border mediation have emerged While these findings are of primary relevance to EU policy and practice they have implications far beyond the EU context at a time of increasing international interest in cross border mediation The analysis of the insights provided by the disputants reveals for example the prominent role played by negotiation as a cross border dispute resolution process that negotiation is a key comparator for disputants when considering whether to use mediation how the EU's continued focus on understanding and presenting mediation as an alternative to litigation has resulted in measures which are insufficient to address fully the barriers to the use of mediation intriguing barriers to the use of mediation which arise from the association which disputants draw between mediation and negotiation how the relationship which disputants draw between mediation and negotiation paradoxically raises both opportunities for and obstacles to the increased use of mediation and what disputants need in order to increase their use of cross border mediation The qualitative nature by way of interviews of the research conducted for this book has enabled the identification of nuanced and novel findings regarding mediation s position and potential in cross border dispute resolution These findings together with a detailed examination of the EU Directive on Certain Aspects of Mediation in Civil and Commercial Matters and the EU s continued initiatives to foster the use of mediation form the foundation upon which this book s recommendations are built Changing the frame to view the use of mediation through the disputants perspective as this book does provides the opportunity for the EU to promote cross border mediation in a way which resonates more deeply with disputants and responds more fully to their concerns and needs This thought provoking book will be of interest not only to European and national bodies seeking to promote the use of mediation but clearly also to dispute resolution academics in house counsel and of course mediators and dispute resolution practitioners in general
