Neil Postman Amusing And Informing Ourselves To Death:

Neil Postman - Amusing and Informing Ourselves to Death Julia Schubert, 2005-11-23 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1 Martin Luther University Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Orality and Literacy language English abstract The central topics of the works of the writer educator communication theorist social critic and cultural commentator Neil Postman have always been the media their different forms of communication and their meanings to people society and culture Any of his books was built around the McLuhan question Does the form of any medium of communication affect our social relations our political ideas or psychic habits and of course as he Marshall McLuhan always emphasized our sensorium Postman 07 30 05 Postman was aware of the fact that a new technology and therefore a new medium may have destructive as well as creative effects During the history of mankind there have been tremendous changes in the forms volume speed and context of information and it is necessary to find out what these changes meant and mean to our cultures Postman 1985 160 For him it is a basic principle that the clearest way to see through a culture is to attend to its tools for conversation Postman 1985 8 In the book Amusing Ourselves to Death Public Discourse in the Age of Show Business Postman examines from a 1980s viewpoint the changes in the American culture caused by the shift from the Age of Reason with the printed word at its center to the Age of Show Business with television as the central medium or in simplifying terms the shift from rationality to triviality Twenty years later the situation has changed again This term paper will make an attempt to answer the question what the new media especially the internet did to the modern American culture and to its public discourse Obviously Postman's provocative title Amusing Ourselves to Death was just the beginning of a fast moving development since nowadays the modern media world seems to shape our lives under the title Informing Ourselves to Death Postman 07 30 05 or to use one of the latest terms Infotaining Ourselves to Death First of all the following chapters will examine the line of Postman's argumentation which led to the conclusion that television has significantly transformed the American society into an amusement and entertainment culture What has happened and what was the role of the media Was this the beginning of a Brave New World As a matter of fact Postman's theories and statements are not to be taken as unreflected truth Subsequently some critical remarks are to be made from a 21 st century viewpoint Information Theory , The Nature of Technology Michael P. Clough, Joanne K. Olson, Dale S Niederhauser, 2013-09-03 How does technology alter thinking and action without our awareness How can instantaneous information access impede understanding and wisdom How does technology alter conceptions of education schooling teaching and what learning entails What are the implications of these and other technology issues for society Meaningful technology education is far more than learning how to use technology It entails an understanding of the nature of technology what technology is how and why technology is developed how individuals and society directly react to and are sometimes unwittingly changed by technology This book places these and other issues regarding the nature of technology in the context of learning teaching and schooling The nature of technology and its impact on education must become a significant object of inquiry among educators Students must come to understand the nature of technology so that they can make informed decisions regarding how technology may influence thinking values and action and when and how technology should be used in their personal lives and in society Prudent choices regarding technology cannot be made without understanding the issues that this book raises This book is intended to raise such issues and stimulate thinking and action among teachers teacher educators and education researchers The contributions to this book raise historical and philosophical issues regarding the nature of technology and their implications for education challenge teacher educators and teachers to promote understanding of the nature of technology and provide practical considerations for teaching the nature of technology

Mass Media and American Politics Doris Appel Graber,1997 In this latest edition of a highly praised book Graber covers a broad range of subjects with three focal points the mass media and their place in the public and private sectors the media and their impact on individuals attitudes and perceptions and media coverage of governmental institutions and political situations Cyberspace and other technological developments are bringing the worlds of mass media and government closer together Understanding how mass media and American government impact each other requires an understanding of their functions and structures

Integrity With Two Eyes Jeffrey J. Knowles,1999-07 Integrity With Two Eyes equates the present situation in government with James Q Wilson and George Kelling s Broken Windows theory of crime Jeffrey J Knowles suggests that the problems of government follow a systematic deterioration of the function of government He states that constant government scandals exhibit the standard moral and ethical disorder in most government agencies For this problem Knowles devises a plan to clean up bureaucratic incompetence from the ground up rather than the usual addressing of only the players involved in major scandals He attempts to connect a huge body of pervasive but poorly focused concerns about government with some concrete options for improvement These ideas apply Kelling and Wilson s crime disorder theory to government and focus on the practice of the often ignored quality management principles in government from within the workplace This plan counters the common application of these principles from external forces

Things That Make Us Smart Don Norman,Tamara Dunaeff,1994-04-21 In Things That Make Us Smart

Donald A Norman explores the complex interaction between human thought and the technology it creates arguing for the development of machines that fit our minds rather than minds that must conform to the machine Humans have always worked with objects to extend our cognitive powers from counting on our fingers to designing massive supercomputers But advanced technology does more than merely assist with thought and memory the machines we create begin to shape how we think and at times even what we value Norman in exploring this complex relationship between humans and machines gives us the first steps towards demanding a person centered redesign of the machines that surround our lives     Screen Smarts Gloria DeGaetano, Kathleen Bander, 1996 Sure to be the definitive sourcebook on media literacy this book addresses all the vital media related issues for children through the age of 14 and offers proactive strategies for supporting children's optimal development in a media age     Sideshow Lindsay Tanner, 2012-07-25 After spending much of my life dedicated to the serious craft of politics I have to admit that I am distressed by what it is becoming Under siege from commercial pressures and technological innovation the media are retreating into an entertainment frame that has little tolerance for complex social and economic issues In turn politicians and parties are adapting their behaviour to suit the new rules of the game to such an extent that the contest of ideas is being supplanted by the contest for laughs The two key rules that now govern the practice of Australian politics are 1 Look like you're doing something and 2 Don't offend anyone who matters These imperatives are a direct consequence of the interaction between media coverage and political activity the aggregated outcome of countless individuals acting rationally in pursuit of their own interests The sideshow syndrome the overall result of these actions is a direct threat to the nation's well being When Lindsay Tanner resigned in 2010 as the ALP's federal minister for finance and member for Melbourne having had an 18 year career as an MP he notably managed to retire with his reputation for integrity intact In Sideshow he lays bare the relentless decline of political reporting and political behaviour that occurred during his career Part memoir part analysis and part critique Sideshow is a unique book that tackles the rot which has set in at the heart of Australian public life     Democracy Overwhelmed Jay Rosen, 1988     Celebrity Politics Darrell M. West, John M. Orman, 2003 This book looks at the history and contemporary role of celebrities in American politics and the long term implications of this trend It examines the intersection of prominent families such as the Kennedys Bushes and Clinton with entertainment figures like Charlton Heston now head of the National Rifle Association Since this book examines celebrity politics in historical context as well as in the contemporary situation it can be used as a supplementary reading in introduction to American Politics courses as well as classes on mass media campaigns and elections Congress the presidency parties interest groups and popular culture Pref
