A Call to Conscience Roger Craft Peace, 2012 Unlike earlier U S interventions in Latin America the Reagan administration's attempt to overthrow the Sandinista government of Nicaragua during the 1980s was not allowed to proceed quietly Tens of thousands of American citizens organized and agitated against U S aid to the counterrevolutionary guerrillas known as contras Believing the Contra War to be unnecessary immoral and illegal they challenged the administration's Cold War stereotypes warned of another Vietnam and called on the United States to abide by international norms A Call to Conscience offers the first comprehensive history of the anti Contra War campaign and its Nicaragua connections Roger Peace places this eight year campaign in the context of previous American interventions in Latin America the Cold War and other grassroots oppositional movements Based on interviews with American and Nicaraguan citizens and leaders archival records of activist organizations and official government documents this book reveals activist motivations analyzes the organizational dynamics of the anti Contra War campaign and contrasts perceptions of the campaign in Managua and Washington Peace shows how a variety of civic groups and networks religious leftist peace veteran labor women's rights worked together in a decentralized campaign that involved extensive transnational cooperation Annual Review - Chief,
