Organizational Learning in Schools and School Systems Vivienne Collinson, Tanya Fedoruk Cook, Sharon Conley, 2006 Leading Continuous Improvement in Schools Erin Anderson, Kathleen M. W. Cunningham, David H. Eddy-Spicer, 2023-10-31 This volume provides a set of principles and systematic methods for improvement to help district and school leaders achieve the continuous improvement goals embedded in the Professional Standard for Educational Leadership PSEL and the National Educational Leadership Program NELP standards Bringing the PSEL Standard 10 to life this book tackles the why how and what of continuous improvement through an equity lens In the first section Leading Continuous Improvement in Schools provides an overall introduction to and rationale for continuous improvement situating current approaches to continuous improvement situating current approaches to continuous improvement in education within broader historical and sectoral contexts The second section highlights how the tenets of improvement science such as making iterative incremental evidence based advancements utilizing practical measurements and acknowledging variability position school and system leaders to adaptively integrate systematic and evidence based approaches to change as part of ongoing organizational processes The book concludes with a section that invites readers to consider leadership approaches that forward improvement work how leaders can build internal capacity to engage in improvement and how policy can support efforts to build and sustain the capacity for continuous improvement Special features include beginning of chapter highlights end of chapter connections to standards and action inventories through each chapter Overall the volume provides a focus on the continuous improvement aspects of the NELP and PSEL standards that serves as a bridge supporting students preparing to become educational leaders in their journey from learning about continuous improvement to learning how to lead continuous equity oriented improvement work in their own contexts School Leadership in Latin America José Weinstein Cayuela, Gonzalo Muñoz Stuardo, Joseph Flessa, 2026-01-06 This edited volume assembles groundbreaking research on school leadership in Latin America a region long underrepresented in international literature It bridges a significant knowledge gap by examining school leaders who they are their skills beliefs practices and impacts within their educational communities Researchers from diverse countries and organizations contribute perspectives using varied disciplinary and methodological traditions offering a comparative view The volume defines the regional knowledge base highlighting commonalities and differences in leadership roles essential for policy development and future research By focusing on Latin America s unique context it informs leadership frameworks illustrating connections and divergences from predominant models Broad regional trends and nuanced national studies provide a comprehensive understanding of leadership dynamics With 13 chapters and an extensive introduction it explores themes including professional profiles leadership styles supportive policies and leadership in challenging circumstances Thinking and Acting Systemically Alan Daly, Kara Finnigan, 2016-05-19 This volume argues that districts are important as a lever for change given the limited success of school by school efforts Policies that focus on skill development recognize and support performance create opportunities for collaboration build leader capacity and create networks of knowledge sharing hold great potential for improving districts but it will require a paradigm shift in the way we view our public school system and those who work within it away from blame and toward complex systems change The Best Available Evidence Paul Newton, David Burgess, 2016-07-15 In The Best Available Evidence Decision Making for Educational Improvement the editors and contributing authors explore the intricacies of working with data and evidence for the purpose of organizational development in educational institutions A broad theme that runs throughout this book is the need for policy makers and practitioners to be informed and critical consumers of educational research The chapters in this volume explore quantitative qualitative narrative and practitioner research approaches and explore the implications for evidence use in educational improvement efforts Many current texts provide an instrumental resource for educational leaders for use in designing road maps for improvement As such these texts offer a perspective based on assumptions that educational personnel are the recipients of predetermined knowledge and evidence and it is the task of instructors and teachers to implement received knowledge of best practice In this book we suggest that teachers instructors educational leaders and policy makers are equally engaged in the creation of knowledge and the establishment of improvement objectives Further we address questions concerning what constitutes improvement how practitioners and policy makers can assess the utility and veracity of evidence and how evidence might be considered in productive and ethical ways This volume is intended for a broad readership of teachers post secondary instructors graduate students educational leaders and policy makers Finally this book will combine K 12 perspectives on educational improvement with perspectives from the research on post secondary improvement Education Leadership and the COVID-19 Crisis Michelle Diane Young, Monica Byrne-Jimenez, Margaret Grogan, 2022-03-04 School Leadership and Education System Reform Peter Earley, Toby Greany, 2017-01-12 How can school leaders shape organisations that offer consistently high quality rounded and equitable education in the context of rapid change How can wider school systems support and encourage all schools to succeed in this way School Leadership and Education System Reform considers the ways in which school leadership and its practice has changed and developed in response to a rapidly changing educational scenario over the last decade to meet the ever growing and changing demands of children policy makers and other stakeholders and considers future developments Drawing together leading thinkers and researchers in the field of leadership and management this text takes an international perspective to consider what we know about school leadership and learning and its practice Theoretically and conceptually informed the contributors draw on recent empirical research studies into leadership learning and system reform to explore the key areas of school leadership and management with specific reference to student adult and organisational learning Key topics covered include The relationship between leadership and student learning How leaders foster professional learning and evidence informed improvement The changing role and nature of accountability System leadership and governance in networked systems The balance between accountability markets and networks in self improving school systems Emerging challenges and opportunities for leaders such as the implications of new technologies Essential reading for those on postgraduate courses on leadership and management and those looking to develop their leadership practice School Leadership and Education System Reform clearly sets out the key issues and provides discussion points and suggests resources to support and guide the reader through the wealth of information

Pennsylvania Educational Leadership ,2007 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Educational Leadership for Organisational Learning and Improved Student Outcomes William Mulford,Halia Silins,Kenneth A. Leithwood,2006-04-11 The change in paradigm in our field is away from the great man or woman theory of leadership and the teacher in his or her own classroom to the development of learning communities which value differences and support critical reflection and encourage members to question challenge and debate teaching and learning issues How to achieve such learning communities is far from clear but we believe the areas of problem based learning PBL and organizational learning OL offer valuable clues The indications are that the successful educational restructuring agenda depends on teams of leaders whole staffs and school personnel working together i e OL linking evidence and practice in genuine collaboration i e PBL The book is unique in that it is both about and uses these two concepts The Case for District-based Reform Jonathan A. Supovitz,2006 In 1999 the Duval County Fla school system set out to improve every school in the district Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,2002 Annual Meeting Program - American Educational Research Association American Educational Research Association,1997 American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,2007 Connecting Leadership with Learning Michael A. Copland,Michael Sturgis Knapp,2006 Written as a series of candid dialogues between the author and K 12 students teachers counselors and administrators Activating the Desire to Learn shows how to apply lessons from the research on motivation to classroom instruction Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W English, 2009-01-30 Educational Leadership and Administration makes a real contribution in focusing scholars attention of this key field on its relevant past and possible future The selection of articles in this major work draws on regional knowledge from the United States Canada the United Kingdom Hong Kong Australia and New Zealand to offer researchers and academics a global perspective of the leading theories and ideas within educational leadership and administration Drawn from the broad perspectives of behaviorism structuralism critical theory and postmodernism these articles and chapters represent the intellectual turning points of thinking in Educational Leadership and Administration within the last 30 40 years The International Encyclopedia of Curriculum A. Lewy, 1991-04-10 The International Encyclopedia of Curriculum is a unique collection of analytical and empirical studies on curriculum related issues Its 280 articles authored by experts from 22 countries are grouped in two sections The first Curriculum as a Domain of Enquiry contains articles dealing with general topics in this field The second Specific Study Areas contains articles on more than 120 subjects currently taught in schools It is the first attempt to provide in a single volume a comprehensive review of approaches and problems related to teaching traditional school subjects such as mathematics history and classical languages as well as the innovative ones such as film studies women s studies communication skills set theory in mathematics and energy education The book is an invaluable tool for educationists educational administrators supervisors researchers policy makers and curriculum planners and a source of information and inspiration for teachers and school level curriculum co ordinators Globalization and Education Ka-Ho Mok, David K. K. Chan, 2002 This book examines and critically reflects upon the origin and development of the Quality Education Movement in Hong Kong It considers the conceptual framework and historical context for the movement and focuses on approaches to quality education policy change and education reforms and the impacts and costs of managerial approach Journal of School Leadership , 2006
