Audience Genre Expectations in the Age of Digital Media Leo W. Jeffres, David J. Atkin, Kimberly A. Neuendorf, 2022-12-05 This volume bridges the divide between film and media studies scholarship by exploring audience expectations of film and TV genre in the age of digital streaming using qualitative thematic and quantitative data driven analyses. Through four ground breaking surveys of audience members and content creators the authors have empirically determined what audiences expect of various genres the extent to which these definitions match those of scholars and critics and the overall variation and complexity of audience expectations in the age of media abundance. They also examine audience habits and preferences drawing from both theory and original empirical analyses with a view toward the implications for the moving image in a rapidly changing media environment. The book draws from the data to develop a number of new concepts including genre repertoire, genre hybridity, audience interest maximization and variety seeking and a new stage of genre development, genre bending. It is an ideal resource for students and scholars interested in the symbiotic relationship between audiences and the moving image products they consume as well as the way the current digital media environment has impacted our understanding of film and TV genres.

The Great Indian Wedding Rajesh Seshadri, 2025-12-30 Stories for the upwardly mobile spiralling downward. This isn't a Bollywood romance. No one runs through a mustard field unless it's for an Instagram sponsorship. This is a collection of biting, hilarious tales about the glorious dumpster fire of modern Indian aspiration. Dive into a world where Budgeting is for losers. A wedding isn't successful unless it requires liquidation of assets across three generations. Spirituality is expensive. The path to enlightenment is paved with platinum accounts and gurus laundering money faster than karma can catch them. Simplicity is complicated. Where executives spend decades earning millions just to afford the luxury of napping under a tree like they could have done at age twenty. Bureaucracy is eternal. Where the only thing that moves slower than the traffic is a government file without a facilitation fee. Rajesh Seshadri delivers a masterclass in indigenous satire. It's painfully relatable, distressingly accurate, and the funniest reality check you'll get this year.
