Risqué Business Ty Matejowsky, 2025-08-15 Risqué Business serves up the breastaurant industry where food service sex appeal identity and gender politics mix. Risqué Business explores the rise and ongoing cultural reckoning of breastaurants sports bar style restaurants like Hooters and Twin Peaks which have long relied on the sexualized presentation of female servers to attract a mostly straight male clientele. Ty Matejowsky, professor of anthropology at the University of Central Florida, is uniquely positioned in America's foundational breastaurant saturated landscape. From this vantage he offers a well balanced account that draws on pop culture media analysis and contemporary gender politics. He delivers a smart layered analysis of how breastaurants commodify youth and femininity, uphold retrograde masculinity, and serve as symbolic battlegrounds in today's highly charged political environments including America's deeply polarized Red State Blue State divide. With case studies, cultural critique, and a critical lens on labor and sexuality, Matejowsky reveals how these restaurants are more than just risqué marketing gimmicks. They reflect deeper anxieties about gender identity and the uneasy fusion of sex and service in American consumer culture. Risqué Business is a high spirited study of an industry that thrives at the intersection of appetite and identity.
