O'Dea,2020-07-21 When I first heard of intermittent fasting through a Pinterest post in 2017 I assumed that it too was going to be a waste of my time and that it was pretty much just a starvation diet I've done those in the past and was miserable every step of the way. Also, from my own experience and those of my friends, starvation diets didn't work. That said, I am and always have been a sucker for the next new and shiny diet plan, so I gave it a try for 3 days. PS, this is usually how I do things: I go all on board for 3 days and then I crash and burn. Anyhow, I didn't do a lick of research before diving straight in with a 4-hour eating window that I decided should only be between 12 noon and 4 pm. I decided that I was going to have coffee with a bit of spackle powdered creamer in it for breakfast and chicken broth for lunch. Any time I felt hungry through the day and it was ALL DAY hunger, I would have a cup of Bengal Spice cinnamon flavored tea or a mug of chicken broth. In my eating window, I would eat a healthy dinner of about 1000 calories. I didn't allow myself to have any sugar or anything fun to eat. I white knuckled it through my 3 days. I now know what I did wrong and how if you do it correctly, intermittent fasting is actually pretty darn easy to stick with in the long term. I've now been at it for over a year and the stubborn 10 pounds that have plagued me my entire adult life have slowly disappeared and stayed away. I get it that this sounds way too good to be true and you're likely to be skeptical. If you want to get into more of the science-y stuff of how this all works without simply being a starvation diet, then I urge you to do some research on your own. If you are still with me, this is how you do it.
