Last Team Standing Matthew Algeo,2013-09-01 Tracing the history of the National Football League during World War II this book delves into the severe player shortage during the war which led to the merging of the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Philadelphia Eagles creating the Steagles The team's center was deaf in one ear its wide receiver was blind in one eye and partially blind in the other and its halfback had bleeding ulcers One player was so old he'd never before played football with a helmet Yet somehow this group of players deemed unfit for military service due to age or physical ailment posted a winning record in the league to the surprise of players and fans alike Digging into the history of the war paralleled by the unlikely story of the Steagles franchise both sports fans and history buffs will learn about the cultural significance of this motley crew of ball players during a trying time in United States history    Always a Loser, Forever a Champion Tim Ehlerding,2011-02 A remnant of dedicated fans joined in from the stands and surrounding grounds Those left were there because they had to stay not because they wanted to Always the loser never the champ Nick mumbled the scuffed helmet still covering his face A clump of grass from the final tackle still clung to the bars on the facemask He kept the headgear well secured to shroud his watery eyes still glassy from the result of the night's battle Looking around he noticed at least ten others still keeping their helmets on For thirty nine years the phrase always a loser echoed in the halls of not only the North Adams football team but the entire Decatur community Prognosticators reviewing this year's team with little talent and less size all said the Braves would add one more notch to their dismal history For an entire city and a team of factory workers facing their own losses the odds for success were even longer Not this year according to head football coach Tony Glandorf No is not an answer four workers proclaimed We will not fail the city's Mayor shouted out As a player two teams and an entire city try to carry on in the face of continual adversity can they find a way to run to the green Always a Loser Forever a Champion is inspired by true stories    *Report of the Secretary of War, which Accompanied the Annual Message of the President of the United States, to Both Houses of the ...
