Impact of Teleworking and Remote Work on Business: Productivity, Retention, Advancement, and Bottom Line Chandan, Harish Chandra, 2024-04-26

The surge in remote and hybrid work arrangements has sparked a paradigm shift in the employment ecosystem. While remote work offers employees the coveted flexibility and freedom from daily commutes, it also introduces challenges such as isolation, reduced visibility and questions about productivity. Impact of Teleworking and Remote Work on Business Productivity, Retention, Advancement and Bottom Line delves into the multifaceted impact of teleworking on businesses, exploring how different organizations grapple with these challenges, drawing on the experiences of industry giants like Google and IBM. It carefully dissects the advantages and disadvantages of teleworking, addressing distractions, cybersecurity concerns and the polarized nature of remote work across global and skill dimensions. The book presents an exploration of solutions tailored for diverse stakeholders. From strategies to enhance employee productivity and maintain confidentiality to fostering human connections and tackling the challenges faced by new hires, each chapter offers actionable insights. Employers, employees and management teams will find guidance on creating a collaborative and innovative remote work culture, mitigating distractions and striking a balance between work and personal life. The suggested topics span the gamut of remote work intricacies, from the relationship between remote work and job satisfaction to strategies for maintaining connections between managers and remote employees. With small, medium and large companies, government agencies and universities as the target audience, the book serves as a strategic guide for entities seeking to harness the potential of remote work while mitigating its challenges.

Remote Cooperation: CSCW Issues for Mobile and Teleworkers Alan J. Dix, Russell Beale, 1996-10-18 We are constantly being told we are living in a shrinking world but for many the opposite seems to be the case Our work is increasingly being done out of the traditional office environment whilst traveling at clients premises or at home We are living further from where we work and we work for global organizations and our colleagues and contacts may be in different countries or different continents At the same time our lives are more and more dependent on constant access to information and one another but our connectivity whilst on the move or at home is often far less efficient than that of the fixed office How do we work cooperatively when we are so far apart
