Programming and Planning in Early Childhood Settings Leonie Arthur, Bronwyn Beecher, Elizabeth Death, Susan Dockett, Sue Farmer, 2017-08-07 Programming Planning in Early Childhood Settings explores a range of approaches to curriculum and to documenting children's learning in early childhood settings. This valuable resource for early childhood education students and practitioners provides a broad view of the concepts and issues in early childhood curriculum. Chapters reflect ongoing discussions about what is meant by the terms planning and programming in the context of early childhood, what is authentic curriculum for young children and effective teaching strategies to extend young children's learning. The strong focus on sociocultural theories of learning promotes awareness of children's diverse experiences, competencies and learning styles and helps readers recognise the need for collaborative partnerships between educators, children and families in order to develop appropriate programs. Thoroughly revised and updated, this new edition shows how chapters of the text are relevant to the Australian Professional Standards for teachers and highlights connections to the school based context. Numerous real life examples, reflections, articles and case studies assist students to understand a variety of educational theories, philosophies and frameworks. Throughout the book there is a focus on the processes of reflection, evaluation and ongoing improvement.

Activating Linguistic and Cultural Diversity in the Language Classroom

Enrica Piccardo, Geoff Lawrence, Aline Germain-Rutherford, Angelica Galante, 2022-04-01 This book challenges the reader to rethink and reimagine what diversity in language education means in transnational societies. Bringing together researchers and practitioners who contributed to the international LINguistic and Cultural DIversity REinvented LINCDIRE project, the book examines four pillars of innovation in language education: the Action oriented approach, Plurilingualism, Indigenous epistemologies and Technology enhanced learning. The book critically discusses plurilingual pedagogical approaches that draw on learners' linguistic and cultural repertoires to encourage and support the dynamic use of languages in curricular innovation. It is a fundamental resource for language teachers, curriculum designers and educational researchers interested in understanding current thinking on the relevance and benefit of a plurilingual paradigm shift for language education in today's societies. More specifically, this book examines the development of plurilingualism and the potential of real life oriented teaching and learning. Explores the concept of plurilingual and pluricultural competence. Focuses on collaboration and reflection from a humanistic tradition. Explores educational technology and explains the limitations and challenges of adopting ready made tools. Highlights the iterative design based research process that informed the development of LINCDIRE's pedagogical framework and action oriented scenarios. Introduces practical examples of action oriented tasks and scenarios and illustrates the online tool LITE in terms of its current functionalities and design. Describes the implementation challenges and opportunities of plurilingual action oriented tasks and discusses the results of implementation. Finally, the book examines future pedagogical innovation and research directions in order to help readers reflect on the implications of achieving sustainable change in language education. This exciting collection addresses an important question in language education: How can plurilingualism and cultural diversity be harnessed to promote sustainable innovation in language learning and teaching? Readers will find contributions from the diverse authors timely, compelling, and engaging. Dr. Bonny Norton, FRSC, University Killam Professor, UBC Dept. of Language Literacy Education, Canada. Embracing a design-based research framework, this book offers learners and teachers powerful validation and a rich, relatable, and inspiring action-oriented approach to holistic, dynamic, mediated, embodied, true-to-life plurilingual language teaching and learning. Dr. Elka Todeva, Professor of Applied Linguistics, MATESOL Program, Advanced Seminar in Plurilingual Pedagogy, SIT Graduate Institute, Washington, D.C. Anyone seeking innovation in Language Education will find in this volume a treasure trove of theoretical, empirical, and methodological insights to answer the questions that arose among the 25 co-authors: discussions to rethink language use, language learning, and language teaching. Dr. Mercedes Bernaus, Emeritus Professor, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain. This thought-provoking and timely book argues convincingly for the need to reconceptualize innovation in language education in an increasingly diverse world. Dr. Regine Hampel, Associate Dean, Research Excellence, Faculty of Wellbeing, Education and Language Studies, The Open University, UK. Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum and Instruction, Ana Garcia-Nevarez, Kimberly A. Gordon Biddle, 2021-04-14. This timely and accessible volume explores how our understanding of research in child development can help cultivate the knowledge, skills, and attitudes children need for informed and thoughtful participation in society by viewing the curriculum through a developmental lens. Biddle and Garcia-Nevarez cover a range of key topics including characteristics of physical, cognitive, and psychosocial development of children, heritable and environmental influences on children's developing self-language and literacy development, mathematical cognition, growth mindsets, and evidence-based positive behavioral interventions and supports. The expert team of contributors offers an advanced exploration of developmental science and how this applies to learning and education in order to create inclusive environments that support children with a range of abilities, including those with the most significant medical, intellectual, and developmental delays. Each chapter contains boxes exploring how the topic relates to the themes of Promoting Social and Emotional Competence, Theory Research to Practice Connection, Common Core and Other Standards, and Social Justice and Diversity, ensuring comprehensive and consistent coverage across the volume. Developmentally Appropriate Curriculum and Instruction will be essential reading for students of child development and education, as well as educators and those in teacher training who are interested in how theory and research can be effectively harnessed to improve children's outcomes. Handbook of Research on Empowering Early Childhood Educators With Technology, Burris, Jade, Rosen, Dina, Karno, Donna, 2021-06-18. Infants & Toddlers Linda Douville-Watson, Terri Swim, 2008 Infant and Toddlers Curriculum and Teaching 6e is the well established reference that takes a child centered approach for the childcare provider called conscious care giving. This important and well rounded approach encourages a sense of empowerment and focuses on the respectful purposeful and careful handling of children in a childcare setting. The book is reader friendly realistic and easily applicable to real life. The 6th edition is updated with the latest information including new references and quotes as well as new brain research relevant to the first 36 months of life. There are case studies included and the book also addresses the specific practices related to special needs children and children of different cultures. There are many key childcare philosophies addressed including that of the child the caregiver and parent involvement. The book provides an emphasis on the child's growth and development and helps the reader to discover how they can best and most effectively influence that development within the child. This book provides the best information regarding the skills necessary to provide high quality care for infants and toddlers in any setting Intentional Leadership for Effective Inclusion in Early Childhood Education and Care Mary Moloney, Eucharia McCarthy, 2018-05-11 Intentional leadership can unite, motivate and empower all educators to work towards the common goal of creating a truly inclusive culture in which all children with or without disabilities are supported and enabled to fully participate in every aspect of daily life and learning. This book recognises diverse manifestations of special educational needs from communication difficulties and delays in learning to social and physical disabilities and considers the ways in which these needs might be embraced within inclusive mainstream settings. Key to this is robust and purposeful leadership that removes barriers to learning, changes existing attitudes and values, motivates staff and foregrounds holistic learning opportunities and experiences. Chapters draw on theoretical models, reflect on international and national policies and consider topics including the image of the child, physical aesthetic and temporal aspects of the learning environment, relational pedagogy, long medium and short term planning, the role of assessment, collaborative working with parents, families and other professionals. In depth descriptions of behaviours and leadership strategies, practice scenarios and activities support the reader's understanding. Intentional Leadership for Effective Inclusion in Early Childhood Education and Care is a comprehensive guide for students, teachers and practitioners involved in Early Childhood Education and Care, Social Care and
