Negotiating Gendered Discourses Fernandez Sexualities:

Negotiating Gendered Discourses Jane L. Christie, 2015-11-25 It has been argued that the first presidential campaign of Michelle Bachelet in Chile and Cristina Fernandez de Kirchner in Argentina used a rhetoric of newness. Some political observers have said that as the first women to successfully run for the highest office in these countries they were presented as the new faces of democracy. These observers argued that gender was not a determining factor in their electoral success but the focus on this first women frame did generate heavily gendered criticisms of these two candidates. Negotiating Gendered Discourses addresses these views by asking how the gender factor is negotiated when women from the Southern Cone of Latin America run for high political office. In particular Jane L. Christie examines how Bachelet and Fernandez positioned themselves in relation to the numerous women led social movements and in doing so reveals points of intersection between these contemporary political discourses and existing sources of female authority when negotiating complicated ideological debates about human rights, the economy and women's rights.

Unbecoming Female Monsters Cristina Santos, 2016-12-07 Unbecoming Female Monsters: Witches, Vampires and Virgins is a multi-cultural and interdisciplinary work that traces the construct of female monsters as an embodiment of socio-cultural fears of female sexuality and reproductive powers. This book examines the female sexual maturation cycle and the various archetypes of female monsters associated with each stage of sexual development as seen in literature, art, film, television and popular culture. Recommended for scholars of Latin American studies, literature, cultural studies, women and gender studies, popular culture and film studies.

Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women Sarah England, 2018-08-15 Writing Terror on the Bodies of Women: Media Coverage of Violence against Women in Guatemala analyzes the scope and dynamics of violence against women in Guatemala and how it is represented in the print media. Using nearly two thousand Guatemalan newspaper reports covering murders and assaults on women, this book contextualizes violence against women within the history of violence in Guatemala, gender ideologies and patriarchal social structures and the contemporary demands of the women's movement for social and legislative change. It shows that while some newspapers cover violence against women with investigative reports and editorials that use feminist analysis and language, these are overshadowed by the large number of individual reports that reproduce narratives of terror and conceal the gendered nature of violence against women by suggesting that delinquents, gangs, unknown men and inexplicably violent husbands are the main culprits while simultaneously upholding dichotomous gendered narratives of good and bad wives and daughters.

Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Irune del Rio Gabiola, 2016-12-27 Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women: Reimagining Queer Identity examines the art created by several Caribbean women who use literature, film, graphic novels, music, testimonios, photographs etc to convey social justice, democracy and new ways of re-imagining marginal identities. In using Chela Sandoval's theories on methodologies of the oppressed, Irune del Rio Gabiola argues how the tactics Sandoval offers can be productively applied to the cultural productions analyzed The author explores how the protagonists of all the cultural productions this book focuses on developing tactics to create new possibilities and alternatives for self fashioning Particularly del Rio Gabiola reconsiders concepts such as shame failure unbecoming hermeneutics of love or flexible bodies as methodologies of the oppressed that propose decolonizing emancipatory techniques in a transnational arena White Middle-Class Men in Rio de Janeiro Valeria Ribeiro Corossacz, 2017-12-06 In this book based on the biographical accounts of upper middle class white men living in wealthy parts of Rio de Janeiro Valeria Ribeiro Corossacz analyzes specific experiences of whiteness as they are produced at the intersection of multiple categories in particular gender class and sexuality White Middle Class Men in Rio de Janeiro The Making of a Dominant Subject investigates what it means to be classified as a white person and a man in a society that is known for its valorization of racial mixing and yet deeply structured by racism class and gender inequalities By examining instances of silence and what is left unsaid as well as precise descriptions of power relations and violent episodes this book encourages the reader to observe the condition of dominant subjects as a keystone of the reproduction of social discrimination The Power of Clinical Preparation in Teacher Education Ryan Flessner, Debra R. Lecklider, 2017-09-08 Preparing teachers to work in our nation's classrooms presents an array of challenges for teacher educators Recently organizations such as the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education AACTE the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education NCATE and the Council of Chief State School Officers CCSSO released reports calling for change supporting clinical teacher preparation and encouraging links between university faculty clinical faculty P 12 educators and pre service teachers This book as well as its companion text Case Studies of Clinical Preparation in Teacher Education An Examination of Three Teacher Preparation Partnerships responds to calls for change in teacher education Sponsored by the Association of Teacher Educators ATE and its Commission on Clinically Based Teacher Preparation the book includes program descriptions theoretical frameworks and research studies Initiated in response to Dr Nancy Zimpher's keynote speech at ATE's 2011 Annual Meeting the Commission on Clinically Based Teacher Preparation set out to identify exemplary programs of teacher education promising practices within those programs and research related to the programs clinical practices This text represents the Commission's findings Journal of Malaysian Studies, 1998 Negotiating the Global Millicent Sherman Thayer, 2004 Sexualities Nivedita Menon, 2007 While sexual violence is an area that is well mapped by feminist scholarship this volume focuses on transgressive and marginalised sexualities It brings together writings on India that highlight the transgression of norms of heterosexuality Of geminist and mascline behaviour of recognisably gendered bodies that declare ungoverned desire to be illegitimate Sexualities also includes a selection of campaign documents from diverse sexuality movements in the country

Sullivan, 1995 More than any other psychologist Carol Gilligan has helped us to hear girls voices just when they seem to be blurring and fading or becoming disruptive during the passage into womanhood When adolescent girls once assured and resilient silence or censor themselves to maintain relationships they often become depressed and develop eating disorders or other psychological problems But when adolescent girls remain outspoken it is often difficult for others to stay in relationship with them leading girls to be excluded or labeled as troublemakers If this is true in an affluent suburban setting where much of the groundbreaking research took place what of girls from poor and working class families what of fading womanhood amid issues of class and race And how might these issues affect the researchers themselves In Between Voice and Silence Taylor Gilligan and Sullivan grapple with these questions The result is a deeper and richer appreciation of girls development and women s psychological health In an urban public school among girls from diverse cultural backgrounds African American Hispanic Portuguese and white and poor and working class families the authors sought a key to the relationship between risk resistance and girls psychological development and health Specifically they found cultural differences that affect girls coming of age in this country In Between Voice and Silence the story of the study parallels another that of African American Hispanic and white women who gathered to examine their own differences and to learn how to avoid perpetuating past divisions among women Together these two stories reveal an intergenerational struggle to develop relationships between and among women and to hold and respect difference     The James White Review ,1990     Environment & Planning ,2005     Race, Romance, and Revolution Nadine Therese Fernandez,1996     Tropicalizations Frances R.
