Whipple, 1907 Negro Neighbors, Bond and Free Phila M. Whipple, 2015-07-09 Excerpt from Negro Neighbors Bond and Free Lessons in History and Humanity Far back to the earliest pages of the world's history must we turn to find the day when first a man was made a slave the property of his fellow man Then vastly more than now life was a struggle a struggle with nature and its laws with wild beasts and savage men a struggle for food and raiment for house and land often for mere existence and the right to live In the midst of these primitive strugglers stalked two grim figures Want and War bringing men into bondage and founding the institution of slavery Hunger and cold famine and privation were the stern agents of Want causing many a man a family or even an entire tribe or clan to accept terms of service from those who could and would supply their urgent needs Even more powerful was War with his long train of foreign captives forced to enter into subjection to the conqueror Even the savages of that early period found it more profitable to enslave their captives than to massacre them and the custom became widely prevalent in the ancient world About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works A Classified Catalogue of the Negro Collection in the Collis P. Huntington Library, Hampton Institute Collis P. Huntington Library (Hampton Institute), 1971 Guide to Microforms in Print, 2002 If I Survive Andrew Taylor, Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2018-08-30 Previously unseen speeches letters autobiographies and photographs of Frederick Douglass and his sons Lewis Henry Frederick Jr and Charles Remond Douglass from the Walter O Evans collection While the many public lives of Frederick Douglass as the representative fugitive slave autobiographer orator abolitionist reformer philosopher and statesman are lionised worldwide If I Survive sheds light on the private life of Douglass the family man For the first time this book provides readers with a collective biography mapping the activism authorship and artistry of Douglass and his sons Lewis Henry Frederick Jr and Charles Remond Douglass In one volume the history of the Douglass family appears alongside full colour facsimile reproductions of their over 80 previously unpublished speeches letters autobiographies and photographs held in the Walter O Evans Collection All of life can be found within these pages romance hope despair love life death war protest politics art and friendship Working together and against a changing backdrop of US slavery Civil War and Reconstruction the Douglass family fought for a new dawn of freedom Marking the 200th anniversary of Frederick Douglass birth this first collective history and comprehensive collection of the

Douglass family writings and portraits sheds new light not only on Douglass as a freedom fighter and family man but on the lives and works of Lewis Henry Frederick Jr and Charles Remond As civil rights protesters essayists autobiographers and orators in their own right they each played a vital role in the struggles for the cause of liberty of their father As published here each of their original writings and portraits is accompanied by an explanatory essay and in depth scholarly annotations as well as a detailed bibliography Recognising that the Frederick Douglass that is needed in a twenty first century Black Lives Matter era is no infallible icon but a mortal individual If I Survive situates the lives and works of Douglass and his family within the social political historical and cultural contexts in which they lived and worked Each unafraid to die for the cause they dedicated their lives to the emancipation of the slavee and to social justice by every means necessary The Foreword is written by Robert S Levine and the Afterword is authored by Kim F Hall neighborhood dramas and into the arena of politics becoming a much more serious taboo than it had ever been before Hodes gives vivid examples of the violence that followed the upheaval of war when black men and white women were targeted by the Ku Klux Klan and unprecedented white rage and terrorism against such liaisons began to erupt An era of terror and lynchings was inaugurated and the legacy of these sexual politics lingered well into the twentieth century The Crisis
