

The book cover features a woman with blonde, wavy hair wearing a white nurse's cap and a white uniform. She is shown in profile, resting her chin on her hand and looking down thoughtfully. The background is a composite image showing a red barn with a green roof in a field of tall grass under a blue sky with white clouds. The title "Nightingale" is written in a large, elegant, dark brown cursive script across the middle of the image.

Florence Nightingale's Suggestions for Thought Lynn McDonald, 2008-12-11 Florence Nightingale's Suggestions for Thought has intrigued readers from feminist philosopher J S Mill who used it in his The Subjection of Women to the latest generation of women's activists. Although selections from this long work have been published, Lynn McDonald is the first editor to work through the numerous surviving drafts of Nightingale's writing and present it as a complete volume. Suggestions for Thought contains two early attempted novels, draft sermons, and a lengthy fictional dialogue featuring St Ignatius, founder of the Jesuits, the American evangelical Jacob Abbott, and British agnostic Harriet Martineau, with cameo appearances by Protestant reformer John Calvin and the poet Shelley, all against an unnamed M.S. The most famous section of Suggestions for Thought is the essay Cassandra, famous as a rant against the family for stifling women's aspirations. Here the printed text is shown with the original novel draft. Alongside McDonald's introductions to each section, provide historical context and Nightingale's later views of the work. Currently Volumes 1 to 11 are available in e-book version by subscription or from university and college libraries through the following vendors: Canadian Electronic Library, Ebrary, MyiLibrary, and Netlibrary. The Coon's Breach of Promise Charles Dupee Blake, 1898 Catalogue of Music British Museum, 1894
