An Asian Tragedy Alan Pollock, 1991 An illustrated middle senior level history text which focuses on the conflicts that have beset the countries of Indochina since the end of World War II The Vietnam wars which dominate this history are explored from a variety of angles Each of the ten chapters is accompanied by questions and an activity list A glossary Cast of characters time line and bibliography are also included

Vietnam Alan Pollock, 1997 Vietnam and its neighbours Cambodia and Laos has experienced much change and turmoil Vietnam Conflict and Change in Indochina looks at the early history of the region colonisation by the French and how this stimulated the growth of nationalism particularly in the Just as Vietnam dominates the area geographically so the history of Vietnam dominates the history of its neighbours and so the impact of the Vietnam Wars is considered from a variety of angles the conflict between the communist north and the non communist south the roles of the different Vietnamese and non Vietnamese armies the types of warfare employed the involvement of the USA and its allies including Australia the Allies withdrawal and its consequences the anti war movements the effect of the fighting on those most directly involved the soldiers and civilians Finally the current situation is analysed in terms of each country's economic woes the tragedy of refugees the problems experienced by returned veterans and the obligations of other countries to assist Indochina's recovery Vietnam Conflict and Change in Indochina provides a wide range of official and non official documents as well as supplementary photographs illustrations and maps that give students a comprehensive picture of the turbulent situation in Indochina Stimulating activities and questions are designed to develop students historical skills especially that of empathising with the participants and the victims of the conflict Good Morning Hanoi Iain Finlay, Trish Clark, 2006 Returning once again to Viet Nam where more than thirty years previously they had been correspondents during the Vietnam War Iain Finlay and Trish Clark take up the job of coaching a team of young Vietnamese people at the Voice of Vietnam radio network in Hanoi Here Iain and Trish describe their experiences and their encounters with the New Viet Nam They describe with warmth and humor the various people they work with and the personalities they meet and get to know in and around the small courtyard where they live This is a warm fascinating book about modern Viet Nam as revealed through the lives of ordinary people Conflict in Indo China Ian Sutherland, 1990 An investigation into the recent history of Indo China cannot be conducted with the same degree of objectivity that we can be apply to further back in the past It is for many people today an emotional issue difficult to put aside because it is history that is still having a significant influence on the present This book offers a clear considered account of the historical background that will allow students to look at the events from a number of perspectives and to understand better the issues that resulted from the conflict this book examines the development of the modern country of Vietnam and the main influences and trends in its history From Chains to Freedom: The Bellett linkage plus the Kidner family, 1788-1988 Thais Mason, 1982 Australian Book Review, 1992 A Soldier Returns Terry Burstall, 1990 Whose News? Neville Petersen, 1999 Vietnam, the Australian Dilemma Terry Burstall, 1993 Index to Reviews of Australian Books (IRAB).
