

Challenging CBT Exaggerated Thinking: Section 1: Considered Responses

“Without you people showing you the way, there would be no way to move forward. You always show me how valuable it is to be a strong, good person. When we work together, we can make the world a better place.” The words were simple, but the meaning was clear: I had found my people.

By advancing this role, particular law enforcement agencies may identify, assess, and mitigate threats to their respective organizations. In this manner, law enforcement agencies can prevent and mitigate the threat of organized transnational criminal organizations, but also take care to ensure that such organizations do not pose a threat to law enforcement agencies themselves. In this way, law enforcement agencies can both contribute to and protect the security of their own and other law enforcement agencies.
