Vocational rehabilitation improved information and practices may enhance state agency earnings outcomes for SSA beneficiaries : report, Who Decides Who Decides? John Spiers, Philip Booth, Neil Russel, 2016-07-12 This book makes the case for ordinary people to get the health and social care which the state has promised them for over 60 years but which has not been delivered. What is the case for choice? How can choice be made real for the individual? What impact can genuine, individually financially empowered choice have on effective funding, purchasing, delivery and outcomes? How can a genuine market grow and thrive? How can the quest for choice include the large numbers of NHS and social care staff on whom success depends? The book urges individual financial empowerment through a life long health savings account for all NHS and social services.

Causes and Consequences of Income Inequality Ms. Era Dabla-Norris, Ms. Kalpana Kochhar, Mrs. Nujin Suphaphiphat, Mr. Frantisek Ricka, Ms. Evridiki Tsounta, 2015-06-15 This paper analyzes the extent of income inequality from a global perspective, its drivers and what to do about it. The drivers of inequality vary widely amongst countries, with some common drivers being the skill premium associated with technical change and globalization, weakening protection for labor and lack of financial inclusion in developing countries. We find that increasing the income share of the poor and the middle class actually increases growth while a rising income share of the top 20 percent results in lower growth. That is, when the rich get richer, benefits do not trickle down. This suggests that policies need to be country specific but should focus on raising the income share of the poor and ensuring there is no hollowing out of the middle class. To tackle inequality, financial inclusion is imperative in emerging and developing countries while in advanced economies policies should focus on raising human capital.
