Outwitting The Gestapo:

Outwitting the Gestapo Lucie Aubrac, 1993 Lucie Aubrac 1912-2007 of Catholic and peasant background was teaching history in a Lyon girls school and newly married to Raymond a Jewish engineer when World War II broke out and divided France. The couple living in the Vichy zone soon joined the Resistance movement in opposition to the Nazis and their collaborators. Outwitting the Gestapo is Lucie's harrowing account of her participation in the Resistance of the months when though pregnant she planned and took part in raids to free comrades including her husband under Nazi death sentence from the prisons of Klaus Barbie the infamous Butcher of Lyon. Her book is also the basis for the 1997 French movie Lucie Aubrac which was released in the United States in 1999

Interrogation in War and Conflict Christopher Andrew, Simona

Tobia, 2014-04-29 This edited volume offers a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of interrogation and questioning in war and conflict in the twentieth century. Despite the current public interest and its military importance interrogation and questioning in conflict is still a largely under researched theme. This volume's methodological thrust is to select historical case studies ranging in time from the Great War to the conflicts in former Yugoslavia and including the Second World War, decolonization, the Cold War, the Troubles in Northern Ireland and international justice cases in The Hague, each of which raises interdisciplinary issues about the role of interrogation. These case studies were selected because they resurface previously unexplored sources on the topic or revisit known cases which allow us to analyse the role of interrogation and questioning in intelligence, security and military operations. Written by a group of experts from a range of disciplines including history, intelligence, psychology, law and human rights. Interrogation in War and Conflict provides a study of the main turning points in interrogation and questioning in twentieth century conflicts over a wide geographical area. The collection also looks at issues such as the extent of the use of harsh techniques, the value of interrogation to military intelligence, security and international justice, the development of interrogation as a separate profession in intelligence as well as the relationship between interrogation and questioning and wider society. This book will be of much interest to students of intelligence studies, strategic studies, counter terrorism, international justice, history and IR in general.

'This Anguish, Like a Kind of Intimate Song' Lillian Leigh Westerfield, 2004 This literary history explores the reality of European women's roles in fighting Nazism. By comparing the resistance literature of French and German authors, this book links the traditional gender expectations for women and the conventions of their everyday lives with their unique forms of resistance. There was an opposition grounded in the ordinary beyond the sphere of political violence. Women were long regarded as outsiders to combat and politics with no stake in upholding resistance myths. Women authors therefore freely rendered the personal and moral landscape of the resister's world in a new vocabulary. They revised standard rhetoric and replaced heroism and bullets with the values of home, human relationships and candid acknowledgement of the sorrow, fear and uncertainty of war.

Remembering the Occupation in French film L. Hewitt, 2008-02-18 When collective memory is a source of national debate the public representation of history quickly becomes a locus of controversy and ideological struggle This work shows how French film has allowed for a public airing of current concerns through the lens of memory s recreations of the Occupation    Women's Representations of the Occupation in Post-'68 France Claire Gorrara,1998-08-12 This study examines French women s writing and representations of the Occupation in post 68 France

The author looks at the work of The Women Resisters those women who were adult resisters during the war and The Daughters of the Occupation those who were born during or after the war period The main contention of the study is that the older generation s nascent awareness of how gender informs political activism is reworked into explicitly feminist representations of wartime France by younger women writers    The Liberation of France H. R. Kedward,Nancy Wood,1995-08 Presenting new research by leading specialists in the fields of history literature and film studies this stimulating volume is the very best in interdisciplinary scholarship and will define the subject for years to come It situates the Liberation in the broadest possible context of image and event a breadth which extends to questions of memory and analogy and incorporates subtle layers of ambiguity    The Anguish and the Ecstasy of a Jewish Chaplain Isaac Klein,1974

Women Artists News Book Review ,1997    Foundations of Psychology William Edgar Vinacke,1968    The Holocaust: Readings and Interpretations Joseph Mitchell,Helen Buss Mitchell,2001 The Holocaust Readings and Interpretations raises important questions related to the study of the Holocaust and offers potential answers to these questions through interpretive essays from the field s leading scholars many with differing opinions and points of view The book emphasizes the complexity of the subject while it seeks to provide an understanding of an historical event that for many people still defies comprehension Although the attempted annihilation of European Jews by Hitler s Third Reich occurred between 1933 and 1945 the roots of antisemitism are at least two millennia old Each of the book s nine chapters raises relevant questions regarding the Holocaust its historical context the factors which made it possible its victims and perpetrators responses to it by individuals groups and nations issues of gender and the philosophical and theological implications The concluding section of the book explores the latest scholarship in the field through analysis and evaluation of the topics which attract historians today    The American Experience in World War II: Remembering and representing the Second World War Walter L. Hixson,2003

French Politics, Culture and Society ,2000    I was Lucky to Escape Wilhelm Necker,Herbert Erff,1940    Best True Stories from World War II C. Brian Kelly,1998    Scottish Rite News Bulletin ,1942    Great Books for Every Book Lover Thomas J. Hanna Diamond presents varied testimony to reveal the realities of women's daily lives and the role they played in both collaboration and resistance She considers the political choices they had to make and the constraints they were under

Women Under the Third Reich Shaaron Cosner, Victoria Cosner, 1998-10-30 Traditionally the story of the Third Reich has been a story of men yet women participated in all aspects of the war and on both sides of the Nazi flag This dictionary with entries on more than 100 women shows the diversity of their roles in this turbulent and disturbing period It includes entries on resistance fighters nurses entertainers writers filmmakers spies and prisoners with exceptional spirit and courage The women represented here came from all the countries involved with the Third Reich and from many different occupations before their involvement in the war housewives secretaries singers film stars pilots and athletes This volume reveals the women's perspective on the history of the Third Reich Despite the vast number of women who supported or fought against the Third Reich historians have often neglected them and their contributions Researchers checking the index of a book on the Third Reich might see one or two female names usually Anne Frank or Eva Braun This book is the first to provide biographical information on the vast number of women who helped shape the era It offers an opportunity to reclaim a small sampling of the women who fought against or supported the Third Reich

The Minsk Ghetto Hersh Smolar, 1989 Smolar b 1905 in Poland was in 1941-42 a leader of the Jewish underground resistance organization in the ghetto of Minsk and later fought in a partisan unit in the Minsk area His memoirs describe the first days of the war the establishment of the ghetto in Minsk the creation of the two underground organizations in the ghetto one by refugees from Poland the other by native Jews and their subsequent unification Nazi mass murders of Jews in the ghetto in 1941-42 the flight of ghetto Jews to the forests in order to join the Soviet partisans partisan warfare Smolar as well as other Jews who fought with the partisans were shocked by the antisemitism of some of their non-Jewish comrades in arms Antisemitism became a habitual phenomenon in the postwar USSR Secret Intelligence Ernest Volkman, 1991 A companion volume to the PBS TV series of the same name is a lucid review of the development of U.S. Based on interviews with spies policymakers and former CIA directors this is the fascinating history of American espionage from the 1919 Red Scare to Watergate and the Iran Contra affair Photographs
