Paolo Gioli Aa. Vv.,2014-12-19T00:00:00+01:00 In a historical moment when cinema is definitively abandoning analogue production and reception modalities the cinematographic work of Paolo Gioli occupies an important and meaningful place in the academic and artistic debate related to the present and future position of cinema and media art in the digital era For this reason the Film Forum Festival decided to organize a one day seminar in Gorizia on 17th March 2013 in order to analyze and discuss the artistic production of this Italian artist This book records and expands topics and reflections developed by international scholars and curators during that event It also includes an original text by Paolo Gioli about his cinema and his artistic production

Futurist Cinema Rossella Catanese,2025-10-01 Futurism and early cinema shared a fascination with dynamic movement and speed presenting both as harbingers of an emerging new way of life and new aesthetic criteria And the Futurists quickly latched on to cinema as a device with great potential to manipulate our perceptions in order to create a new world In the edited collection Futurist Cinema Rossella Catanese explores that conjunction bringing in avant garde artists and their manifestos to show how painters and other artists turned to cinema as a model for overcoming the inherently static nature of painting in order to rethink it for a new era

Contemporary Photographers ,1982 MAKING IMAGES MOVE Jan-Christopher Horak,1997-09-17 In Making Images Move Jan Christopher Horak looks at the work of eight European and American photographers whose films illustrate the gradual fragmentation of realistic narratives during the last eighty years In close analyses of specific works he shows how the visions of early practitioners such as Paul Strand and Laszlo Moholy Nagy who tried to create meaningful political statements using modernist techniques gave way to the more personal though no less socially conscious creations of 1960s and 1970s filmmakers such as Chris Marker Robert Frank and Danny Lyon Even documentary became more subjective with Helen Levitt pioneering the use of the handheld camera and intuitive editing in her 1946 film In the Street Horak argues that photographers who have ventured into filmmaking while fruitfully exploiting the differences between the two genres often have been able to retain both their technical styles and complex thematic concerns Including a filmography of more than 130

photographer filmmakers Making Images Move illuminates the instrumental role of these artists in the evolution of experimental cinema Pinhole Photography Eric Renner,1995 A respected guide for students amateurs and advanced photographers inside you will find more varieties of pinhole cameras for beginners expanded instructional information on pinhole and zone plate practices and new information on where to get pinhole supplies throughout the world With listings of workshops pinhole photographer s web sites pinhole books available and a guide to commercial and individual suppliers of pinhole equipment this is the one guide you ll need to navigate the industry Now in full color this classic offers a new chapter on camera obscuras a more in depth how to chapter for beginners as well as a new chapter for advanced photographers and revised exposure guides and optimal pinhole charts New information on where to get hard to find supplies More varieties of pinhole cameras for beginners Expanded instructional information on pinhole practices *Poetroniche.
