Narrative Research in Ministry Carl E. Savage,Dr William Presnell,2008 We are in a real sense our stories Who we are what we think and how we act are all shaped by the many large and small stories that make up the discourse embedded in our multi sensory social experience It is this postmodern understanding of identity and reality that has prompted the authors to fashion a new way of thinking about doing research in faith communities today particularly through a Doctor of Ministry program It is our belief that in order for faith communities to define themselves and to know what to do in ministry they must first understand the multiple stories which intersect with a given ministry situation in their specific context This Way to Youth Ministry Duffy Robbins,2004 Practical applications theological foundations and valuable information for the student beginning a youth ministry Sports Chaplaincy Andrew Parker,Nick J. Watson,John B. White,2016-06-24 This ground breaking book provides an in depth analysis of the theory and practice of sports chaplaincy in a global context Written in an accessible style yet based on academic evidence and theory the contributors include those leading major national chaplaincy organisations located in the UK US Australia and Continental Europe as well as chaplains and sport psychologists working in elite and amateur sport and those involved in teaching pastoral theology Providing a rich and informative source of knowledge and inspiration for practitioners athletes academics and those interested in the general relationship between sport and faith contributors also address the provision of sports chaplaincy at sporting mega events including the Olympic Games This much needed overview of chaplaincy provision in sport across a range of national and international contexts and settings including both catholic and protestant perspectives is the first collection of its kind to bring together leading scholars in sports chaplaincy with a view to providing professional accreditation and training amidst the fast emerging field of sports theology
