Florence Nightingale's Spiritual Journey: Biblical Annotations, Sermons and Journal Notes Lynn

McDonald,2006-01-01 Florence Nightingale 1820 1910 is widely known as the heroine of the Crimean War and the founder of the modern profession of nursing She was also a scholar and political activist who wrote and worked assiduously on many reform causes for more than forty years This series will confirm Nightingale as an important and significant nineteenth century scholar and illustrate how she integrated her scholarship with political activism Indispensable to scholars and accessible and revealing to the general reader it will show there is much more to know about Florence Nightingale than the lady with the lamp Although a life long member of the Church of England Nightingale has been described as both a Unitarian and a significant nineteenth century mystic Volume 2 begins with an introduction to the beliefs influences and practices of this complex person The second and largest part of this volume consists of Nightingale's biblical annotations made at various stages of her life some dated some not The third part of volume 2 contains her journal notes including her diary for 1877 which is published here for the first time Much of this material is highly personal even confessional in nature Some of it is profoundly moving and will serve to show the complexity and power of Nightingale's faith Currently Volumes 1 to 11 are available in e book version by subscription or from university and college libraries through the following vendors Canadian Electronic Library Ebrary MyLibrary and Netlibrary Lutheran Almanac and Year-book ,1899 JOURNEY TO LOVE J.A.

Gosek,2025-12-03 Family security and order are the principles which governed the life that Gerri Henry and her husband had chosen They settled in River Town far enough away from the big city their life revolving around their strong family connections and raising their children in a healthy loving environment However when her husband dies tragically Gerri is left to hold the family banner and her usually outgoing friendly and community based connections dwindle as she becomes more insular focusing on protecting and raising her children to the exclusion of her own personal happiness Samuel Masters is outgoing confident and successful He has been raised to think outside the box his mixed Aboriginal and English heritage never at odds with each other He accepts change as a constant inevitable part of life and lives in harmony with his worldly ambitions achieving financial success as a real estate and property developer He also lives in harmony with his ancestral roots maintaining strong family connections and pride in his mixed heritage The only important aspect that has eluded him is a life partner But universal cogs are turning and Sam arrives in River Town to purchase the boutique hotel which Gerri manages meeting the woman he has been waiting for His attraction to her is spontaneous and deep But Gerri is reluctant to leave her secure world and refuses to let Sam into her life in spite of her own deep attraction to him Their journey to love is fraught with personal obstacles and neither can know the consequences which will follow them on such a journey Neither is fully prepared for the total eclipse of their collision and each must learn to adopt a new perspective Follow their journey and adopt their spirit A Select Library of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church: St.
