Pdf Online Second World War Z:

Memory, Conflict and New Media Ellen Rutten, Julie Fedor, Vera Zvereva, 2013-04-12 This book examines the online memory wars in post Soviet states where political conflicts take the shape of heated debates about the recent past and especially World War II and Soviet socialism. To this day former socialist states face the challenge of constructing national identities producing national memories and relating to the Soviet legacy. Their pasts are principally intertwined changing readings of history in one country generate fierce reactions in others. In this transnational memory war digital media form a pivotal discursive space one that provides speakers with radically new commemorative tools. Uniting contributions by leading scholars in the field, Memory, Conflict and New Media is the first book length publication to analyse how new media serve as a site of political and national identity building in post socialist states. The book also examines how the construction of online identity is irreversibly affected by thinking about the past in this geopolitical domain. By highlighting post socialist memory's digital mediations and digital memory's transcultural scope the volume succeeds in a twofold aim to deepen and refine both post socialist memory theory and digital memory studies. This book will be of much interest to students of media studies, post Soviet studies, Eastern European Politics, memory studies and International Relations in general.

Memory Laws in Poland and Hungary Report by the research consortium 'The Challenges of Populist Memory Politics and Militant Memory Laws \(MEMOCRACY\)' Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias, Grażyna

Baranowska, Anna Wójcik, Mirosław Sadowski, Anastasiia Vorobiova, 2023-12-31 This Report consists of two main parts devoted to Poland's and Hungary's remembering of and dealing with the past including with the use of memory laws and other deployments of legal and extra legal means in historical policy including soft law. It also discusses relevant domestic courts' jurisprudence. The report situates these practices against European human rights law standards inferred from the ECtHR case law. The aim of this exercise is capturing the dynamics of the Polish and Hungarian state's relationship to the past after 1989 in a concise form and examine the current legal framework. The Polish and Hungarian sections are structured around common themes. In what follows we shall discuss mnemonic constitutionalism, the institutionalisation of mnemonic governance, memorialisation of the Second World War and the Holocaust, reckoning with communism, education and memory.

The report includes discussions of political social and cultural factors that contextualise the legal framework The final part concludes with broader reflections on the state of Polish and Hungarian democracies understood as constitutional and political regimes based on references to the past and a specific form of governance of historical memory The report is supplemented by Conclusions and Recommendations addressed to a wide range of players and participants of public deliberations over history and the past including lawmakers on domestic and European level academia and the civil society
