Pdf Online Trouble History Morality Revolution Counterrevolution:

Poverty and Neoliberalism Ray Bush, 2007-04-20 Why do so many people worldwide suffer hunger and poverty when there is enough food and other resources globally to prevent it This book shows how famine and food insecurity are an essential part of modern capitalism Although trade debt relief and development initiatives are important they do not alter the structure of the global economy and poverty continues to be created by processes like privatisation trade liberalisation and market reform Despite the end poverty rhetoric of the World Bank and the G8 these high levels of poverty sustain Western wealth and power Is there any hope for change Using case studies from Egypt and North Africa Nigeria Sudan and elsewhere in sub Saharan Africa Ray Bush illustrates that there is resistance to neoliberal policies and that struggles over land mining and resources can shape real alternatives to existing globalisation

Disorder and the Disinformation Society Jonathan Paul Marshall, James Goodman, Didar Zowghi, Francesca da Rimini, 2015-04-17 This book is the first general social analysis that seriously considers the daily experience of information disruption and software failure within contemporary Western society Through an investigation of informationalism defined as a contemporary form of capitalism it describes the social processes producing informational disorder While most social theory sees disorder as secondary pathological or uninteresting this book takes disordering processes as central to social life The book engages with theories of information society which privilege information order offering a strong counterpoint centred on disinformation Disorder and the Disinformation Society offers a practical agenda arguing that difficulties in producing software are both inherent to the process of developing software and in the social dynamics of informationalism It outlines the dynamics of software failure as they impinge on information workers and on daily life explores why computerized finance has become inherently self disruptive asks how digital enclosure and intellectual property create conflicts over cultural creativity and disrupt informational accuracy and scholarship and reveals how social media can extend but also distort the development of social movements

Time, Temporality and Violence in International Relations Anna Agathangelou, Kyle Killian, 2016-03-02 Time transforms the way we see world politics and insinuates itself into the ways we act In this groundbreaking volume Agathangelou and Killian bring together scholars from a range of disciplines to tackle time and temporality in international relations The authors critical theorists artists and poets theorize and speak from the vantage point of the anticolonial postcolonial and decolonial event They investigate an array of experiences and structures of violence oppression neocolonization slavery war poverty and exploitation focusing on the tensions produced by histories of slavery and colonization and disrupting dominant modes of how we understand present times This edited volume takes IR in a new direction defatalizing the ways in which we think about dominant narratives of violence peace and liberation and renewing what it means to decolonize today's world It challenges us to confront violence and suffering and articulates another way to think the world arguing for an understanding of the present as a vulnerable space through which radically different temporal experiences appear And it calls for a disruption of the everyday politics of expediency in the guise of neoliberalism and security This volume reorients the ethical and political assumptions that affectively imaginatively and practically captivate us simultaneously unsettling the familiar but dubious promises of a modernity that decimates political life Re animating an international political the authors evoke people s struggles and movements that are neither about redemption nor erasure but a suspension of time for radical new beginnings

Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Lucian Stone,2014-07-31 Since cosmopolitanism has often been conceived as a tenet of Western civilization that emanates from its Enlightenment based origins in a humanist age of modernity Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Spheres of Belonging advances a highly innovative gesture by contemplating the implications and relevance of the idea in a so called non Western cultural territory The particularities of the Iranian and Islamic context shed new light on advancements and obstacles to cosmopolitan praxis The volume provides four principle disciplinary assessments of cosmopolitanism philosophy political science sociology and cultural studies including literary criticism The authors in this collection critically examine topics including the historical encounter between Iranian and Western thinkers and its impact on Iranian political ideals the tension between maintaining apolitical theology rooted in metaphysical assumptions and the prerequisite of secularism in cosmopolitan and democratic philosophies This highly innovative volume will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern and Iranian Studies Islamic Studies Globalization Political Science and Philosophy

Conflict Propaganda in Syria Oliver Boyd-Barrett,2021-12-28 This book investigates rival narratives about the conflict in Syria from 2011 onwards It examines the starkly different narratives about the Syrian conflict told by mainly Western mainstream and alternative media and contrasts these narratives with the equally polarized but more nuanced narratives of mainly Western scholars and long form journalists Differences of narrative concerning the conflict include what is deemed relevant context in trying to explain the war whether the war is best seen as a civil conflict or as a proxy war fought among external powers the degree of emphasis given to the alleged crimes of the Syrian regime as opposed to the alleged violence of Salafist militia the accuracy of the origin story of the conflict in Daraa the extent to which the initial protestors were secular campaigners calling for democracy or whether they were Muslim extremists seeking a sectarian society governed by sharia law Several case studies of propaganda institutions are examined here including the journalism of Marie Colvin the role of government funded NGOs the controversies surrounding each of three major instances of alleged regime use of chemical weapons and the politicization of the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons OPCW This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies propaganda studies Middle Eastern politics and International Relations in general

PAIS International in Print Catherine Korvin,2003-05 This book contains bibliographic references with abstracts and subject headings to public and social policy literature and to world politics published in print and electronic formats international focus

Sexualised Crimes, Armed Conflict and the Law Hannah Baumeister,2018-06-04 From ancient to modern times

sexualised war violence against women was tolerated if not encouraged as a means of reward propaganda humiliation and terror This was and is in defiance of international laws that have criminalised acts of sexualised war violence since the 18th century Ad hoc international tribunals have addressed especially war rape since the 15th century The International Criminal Court ICC however is the first independent permanent international criminal court that recognises not only war rape but also sexual slavery and other sexualised crimes as crimes against humanity war crimes and acts of genocide in its statute and supporting documents This book explores how the ICC definitions of rape and forced marriage came about and addresses the ongoing challenge of how to define war rape and forced marriage in times of armed conflict in a way that adequately reflects women s experiences as well as the nature of the crimes In addition to deepening the understanding of the ICC negotiations of war rape and forced marriage and of the crimes themselves this volume highlights relevant factors that need to be considered when criminalising acts of sexualised war violence under international law Sexualised Crimes Armed Conflict and the Law draws on feminist and constructivist theories and offers a comprehensive theoretical and empirical examination of the definition of rape and forced marriage It presents the latest state of knowledge on the topic and will be of interest to researchers academics policymakers officials and intergovernmental organisations and students in the fields of post conflict law and justice international law human rights law international relations gender studies politics and criminology
