Peace Operations Seen From Below U N Missions And Local People:

Peace Operations Seen from Below Béatrice Pouligny, 2006 Explores many ways local populations think about and respond to peacekeepers Timely reflection on nature of peacekeeping operations occupation and conflict resolution or escalation Engagingly written suitable for undergraduate level courses Cambodia Somalia Mozambique El Salvador Bosnia Haiti Sierra Leone all have been the subject of interventions by UN peacekeeping forces sent to stabilize these societies torn by political and ethnic conflict Yet little is known or has been investigated about how local inhabitants interact with and respond to peacekeepers in their midst In Peace Operations Seen From Below Béatrice Pouligny argues that much of what is being rebuilt in societies emerging from war or in some cases what is continuing to be destroyed often lies in the ordinary daily lives of both local populations and the staff of UN peacekeeping missions Pouligny's close analysis of UN interventions based on first hand observation of how local people intermingle with UN soldiery and civilians sheds light on a neglected but crucial dimension of international peace enforcement By foregrounding the experiences of ordinary people she renders visible those who are often hidden within the fog of both war and peace

Peace Operations Seen from Below Béatrice Pouligny, 2006 In Peace Operations Seen from Below Béatrice Pouligny argues that much of what is being rebuilt in societies emerging from war or in some cases what is continuing to be destroyed often lies in the ordinary daily lives of both local populations and the staff of UN missions These on the ground realities are often overlooked by outsiders yet they may prove to be as important as political negotiations at the center debates in the UN Security Council or hearings before an International Criminal Court Central to Pouligny's study is the key role played by local interlocutors Her close analysis of several UN interventions based on first hand observation of how local people intermingle with UN soldiery and civilians sheds light on a neglected but crucial dimension of international peace enforcement

BOOK JACKET How Peace Operations Work Jeni Whalan, 2013-12 When powerful states and international organizations decide to respond to violent conflict around the world their preferred policy instrument is to deploy peace operations institutions that must serve both the international politics of their creation as well as the fractured local societies they aim to transform But while their international face has been widely analysed we know less about how peace operations function on the ground In How Peace Operations Work Jeni Whalan addresses this critical dimension of peacekeeping She analyses the effectiveness of peace operations through a local lens asking new questions about how they work and generating new insights about how they might be made to work better What emerges is the overriding importance of local legitimacy the perception among local actors that a peace operation its personnel and its objectives are right fair and appropriate How Peace Operations Work demonstrates that when local actors perceive a peace operation to be legitimate they are more likely to help the operation achieve its goals This book combines novel theoretical progress with rich empirical work drawing on in depth case studies of the United Nations Transitional Authority in Cambodia UNTAC and the Regional Assistance Mission to Solomon Islands

RAMSI to propose a new approach to studying the effectiveness of peace operations and a set of practical recommendations that challenge key elements of prevailing peace operations policy UN Peace Operations and International Policing Charles T. Hunt, 2014-09-15 This book addresses the important question of how the United Nations UN should monitor and evaluate the impact of police in its peace operations UN peace operations are a vital component of international conflict management Since the end of the Cold War one of the foremost developments has been the rise of UN policing UNPOL Instances of UNPOL action have increased dramatically in number and have evolved from passive observation to participation in frontline law enforcement activities Attempts to ascertain the impact of UNPOL activities have proven inadequate This book seeks to redress this lacuna by investigating the ways in which the effects of peace operations and UNPOL in particular are monitored and evaluated Furthermore it aims to develop a framework tested through field research in Liberia for Monitoring and Evaluation M E that enables more effective impact assessment By enhancing the relationship between field level M E and organisational learning this research aims to make an important contribution to the pursuit of more professional and effective UN peace operations This book will be of much interest to students of peace operations conflict management policing security studies and IR in general Forging New Conventional Wisdom Beyond International Policing Bryn Hughes, Charles T. Hunt, Jodie Curth-Bibb, 2013-01-08 Forging New Conventional Wisdom Beyond International Policing Learning from Complex Political Realities provides an innovative perspective in the field by conceptualizing international policing as part of a much broader system of peace and capacity development initiatives After establishing the global context and historical evolution of police in peace operations authors Bryn Hughes Charles T Hunt and Jodie Curth Bibb proceed to recast key ontological and epistemological aspects Examinations of the Rule of Law and Monitoring and Evaluation in peace and capacity building establish a solid foundation upon which the authors offer a convincing argument for a new post Weberian approach In Forging New Conventional Wisdom Beyond International Policing Learning from Complex Political Realities researchers practitioners and policy makers will find a critical addition to the current discourse on international policing Why are humanitarian NGOs significant in assisting war-torn societies? Tobias Schuldt, 2008-01-25 Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject Politics International Politics Topic Peace and Conflict Studies Security grade 76% University of Bradford course Peacebuilding and Post Conflict Reconstruction 47 entries in the bibliography language English abstract After 1988 UN Peace Operations directed their focus on post conflict peacebuilding which meant a shift away from the traditional peacekeeping to a more complex task that required a division of labour between the UN and other international agencies including NGOs As a result NGOs are getting more and more involved in the task of peacebuilding in war torn societies The essay demonstrates that the external assistance needs to be improved in order to strengthen local capacities for peacebuilding It focuses on local NGOS and international NGOs which already have a lot of experience of working in war torn societies It also involves an explanation of how and why NGOs are significant in assisting war torn societies and how NGOs are qualified to broaden the peace process as it is demanded by some scholars This is followed by an examination of the reality local NGOs face in peacebuilding processes It concludes by suggesting what should be done to improve the relations between the international community and local NGOs Public Information Strategies in UN Peacekeeping Operations Roni Wadie Abusaad,2008 The Use of Force in UN Peacekeeping Peter Nadin,2018-02-06 This edited volume provides a detailed and nuanced analysis of UN peacekeeping and the use of force to inform a better understanding of the complex and interconnected issues at stake for the UN community Peacekeeping is traditionally viewed as a largely passive military activity governed by the principles of impartiality consent and the minimum use of force Today most large UN Peacekeeping Operations are only authorized to use force in defence of their mandates and to protect civilians under imminent threat of physical violence Recently with the deployment of the Force Intervention Brigade in the DRC the UN has gone beyond peacekeeping and into the realm of peace enforcement These developments have brought to the fore questions regarding the use of force in the context of peacekeeping The key questions addressed in this book examine not only the utility of force but also the dilemmas and constraints inherent to the purposive use of force at a strategic operational and tactical level Should UN peacekeepers exercise military initiative Is UN peacekeeping capable of undertaking offensive military operations If so then under what circumstances should peacekeepers use force How should force be wielded And against whom With chapters written by experts in the field this comprehensive volume will be of great use and interest to postgraduate students academics and experts in international security the UN peacekeeping and diplomacy Transnational Terrorism, Organized Crime and Peace-Building Wolfgang Benedek,2010-05-13 This volume investigates the role of the transnational terrorist and criminal organizations in the peace building processes with a particular focus on the Western Balkan region Conducted within the framework of human security analysis the research focuses on the security of the human being Journal of Peace Research ,2007-03 New Perspectives on Liberal Peacebuilding Edward Newman,Roland Paris,Oliver P. Richmond,2009 Africa Sierra Leone Afghanistan Bosnia Herzegovina Timor Leste Sri Lanka Palestine Israel United Nations Lebanon Cambodia Central America Annual Review of Political Science ,2008 The mission of Annual review of political science is to provide systematic periodic examinations of the field through critical authoritative reviews The comprehensive critical review not only summarizes a topic but also roots out errors of fact or concept and provokes discussion that will lead to new research activity Each review contains title author s key words abstracts review and bibliography Zones of Peace Landon E. Hancock,Christopher Roger Mitchell,2007 Looks at the ways people have used sanctuary throughout history and in present day conflicts to avoid or challenge violence Authors with practical experience in peace zones throughout Asia Europe Africa and Latin America The notion of having sanctuary from violence or threat has probably existed as long as conflict itself Whether people seek safety in a designated location such as a church or hospital or over a regional border or whether their professions or life situations doctors children allow them at least in theory to avoid injury in war sanctuary has served as a powerful symbol of non violence The authors of this collection examine sanctuary as it relates to historical and modern conflicts from the Philippines to Colombia and Sudan They chart the formation and evolution of these varied zones of peace and attempt to arrive at a theory of sanctuary that might allow for new and useful peacebuilding strategies This book makes a significant contribution to the field of conflict resolution using case studies to highlight efforts made by local people to achieve safety and democracy amid and following violent civil wars The authors ground the emerging interest in sanctuary by providing a much needed description of the complexity of these peace zones Other Contributors Kevin Avruch Pushpa Iyer Roberto Jose Jennifer Langdon Nancy Morrison Krista Rigalo Catalina Rojas and Mery Rodriguez From Genocide to Continental War Gérard Prunier, 2009 process In From Genocide to Continental War Gerard Prunier describes in precise and chilling detail this massive yet little known conflict which became known as Africa's First World War It became a litmus test for the fragile state of the continent as Africans were struggling to usher in a new era as the twentieth century drew to a close Book Jacket A World Turned Upside Down Neil Boothby, Alison Strang, Michael G. Wessells, 2006 Authors with wide ranging experience with children in war zones across the globe Looks at the psychology of children's experiences in conflict in the context of their families and communities A World Turned Upside Down looks at the experiences of children in war from a psychological and social ecological perspective offering thoughtful observations and dispelling myths about what results when children grow up in conflict situations In contrast to individualized approaches the volume offers a deeper conceptualization that shows the socially mediated impacts of war Children exposed to the same traumatic experiences may have different reactions and needs for psychosocial support Further psychosocial assistance to war affected children often occurs not through the provision of therapy by outsiders but via support from insiders Each contributor has worked extensively with children in war zones in Europe Africa Latin America and Asia They refrain from common perceptions of children as victims of war induced trauma to provide a holistic understanding of children's experiences Each helps pinpoint ways to reduce further violence foster well being and nurture the kinds of social connections that can liberate children from the pathologies of war so that they can mature into healthy and well adjusted adults Other contributors Alastair Ager Cairo Arafat Catherine Chen Amy E Hepburn Kathleen Kostelny Siobh n McEvoy Levy Susan McKay Dahab Musleh and Carl Triplehorn Turning Points in Post-war Bosnia Christophe Solioz, 2007 The tenth anniversary of the Dayton Paris Peace Agreement in December 2005 provides an important milestone encouraging a review of its achievements and shortcomings and examining future challenges to Bosnia and Herzegovina and the international community This book outlines some basic trends focusing on three essential issues facing this country democratization and transitions processes country ownership and potential turning points Addressing these issues in a non dogmatic way in the spirit of constructive criticism the book concludes that both the EU and Bosnia must seize their opportunities and responsibilities As the Dayton decade draws to an end the next chapter in Bosnia's history must be a European one and it must start now Highlighting the complexity of the ownership process as well as the necessity to foster local responsibility the book focuses on state building and European integration that will evolve by implicit necessity and not by fiat or decree The propose After Mass Crime Beatrice Pouligny (et.al), Simon Chesterman, Albrecht Schnabel, 2007 International interventions in the aftermath of mass violence tend to focus on justice and reconciliation processes elections and institution building The frame of reference tends to be at the state level with insufficient attention paid to the transformations of belief systems and codes of conduct This book seeks to bridge this divide by offering a trans disciplinary analysis of the impact of mass crime on the rebuilding of social and political relations Drawing on historical and more recent cases including examples from Bosnia Herzegovina Burundi Cambodia Indonesia Peru and Rwanda the authors examine the impact of mass crimes on individuals society at large and the organizations involved in providing assistance in the post conflict phase American Book Publishing Record ,2006 AFB-Info ,2002 Réforme au Congo (RDC) Théodore Trefon, 2009-09-01 Ce livre analyse d une mani re critique les efforts men s pour la r habilitation de l Etat depuis l ascension au pouvoir de Joseph Kabila Il montre que la responsabilit de l chec des diff rents objectifs est partag e par la communaut internationale faute d accord de sch ma directeur et par les autorit s congolaises qui s accommodent le plus souvent d une situation de statu quo
