Peaceful Painter Memoirs Of An Issei Woman Artist:

Peaceful Painter Hisako Hibi,Ibuki Hibi Lee,2004 Hisako Hibi s art and the informal journals and notes that she kept while at Topaz internment camp in Utah during World War II are the basis for this elegant book Taken together her paintings offer an insight into the daily life of a woman who would not abandon her art or betray her spirit Peaceful Painter Hisako Hibi ,2004 Pictures of Belonging ShiPu Wang,2023-12-05 Pictures of Belonging showcases more than one hundred objects created by Miki Hayakawa Hisako Hibi and Min Okubo These trailblazing American women of Japanese descent part of the pre World War II generation of artists in California were committed to exploring art as a productive means of storytelling but their achievements are rarely recognized in the pages of American history The book puts the artists works in dialogue with one another for the first time creating new conversations on citizenship community and agency in the historical record during an era of exclusion for Japanese Americans in particular and Asian Americans as a whole Asian American Modern Art Gordon H. Chang,2008 Featuring examples across many media and extending beyond ethnicity Asian American Modern Art brings into focus an underrepresented and vital group within American art MultiCultural Review ,2005

Asian American Art Gordon H. Chang,2008 Asian American Art A History 1850 1970 is a first ever survey exploring the lives and artistic production of artists of Asian Ancestry active in the United States before 1970 and features ten essays by leading scholars biographies of more than 150 artists and more than 400 reproductions of artwork and photographs of artists together creating compelling narratives of this heretofore forgotten American art history American Book Publishing Record ,2005

From Sites of Memory to Cybersights Ingrid Gessner,2007 This interdisciplinary study explores the legacies of Japanese American World War II internment experiences and the factors influencing the construction and mediation of cultural memory and national ethnic identity in the United States It discusses issues of contested memory and shows how once repressed historic events are selectively commemorated or even erased By focusing on representations of Japanese American internment experiences recovered reframed or created since the 1980s the study acknowledges that these experiences continue to be reevaluated in a climate of ethnic politicization Covering sites of memory ranging from historic places of Japanese American internment to memorials built both at centers of Japanese American cultural life as well as at centers of national cultural identity the study also critically approaches sites or rather sights in cyberspace that may be visited only virtually thus taking the scholarship of American memory studies into the digital realm The Western Historical Quarterly ,2005

America, History and Life ,2006 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993
