The Transformation of the World of War and Peace Support Operations Kobi Michael, David Kellen, Eyal Ben-Ari, 2009-03-20 With the end of the Cold War the euphoria of the Gulf War of the 1990s and the avowal of a New World Order peace operations were declared as the recipe for a better world through international intervention in conflict arenas However the debacles and failures in Cambodia Somalia or the Balkans led to disillusionment and a sense of strategic helplessness among leaders experts and scholars in the industrial democracies While these arguments have been the focus of intense criticism and discussion they nevertheless underscore the fact that since the end of the Cold War the armed forces of the industrial democracies have undergone very significant transformations This is the first work linking the changes in armed forces to Peace Support Operations PSOs those operations with major state building components that demand broad and coherent cooperation between military forces and civilian entities The Transformation of the World of War and Peace Support Operations is timely as the recent debates over PSOs continue to take center stage This work embodies a new set of ideas and concepts that aid in grasping and interpreting the transformations taking place in the world of war and in PSOs It seeks to understand how social economic political and organizational transformations around the globe are related to the complex links between armed forces and PSOs Additionally this work addresses issues that continue to define the character and makeup of modern warfare and the missions of PSOs for coming decades

The Governance of Policing and Security Bob Hoogenboom, 2010-02-12 This book explores policing regulation private security and intelligence to understand current transformations in policing Policing today can no longer be understood only in terms of an organization the police but more and more in terms of multi agency processes This could be functional for national security interests safety and security but detrimental to accountability and the democratic process Bob Hoogenboom discusses notions of blurring of boundaries unbounding and hybridity and pays homage to and critiques leading thinkers in the field Hoogenboom argues that police studies and criminology are too fragmented and focused on the criminal justice system and not oriented enough towards undertows in policing and security Drawing from not only a wealth of academic sources but also literature and popular culture this book unpicks what these new forms of security mean for governance Book Jacket
