The sun had disappeared behind the snowy peaks of the Cordilleras but the beautiful Peruvian sky long retains through the transparent veil of night the reflection of his rays the atmosphere is impregnated with a refreshing coolness which in these burning latitudes affords freedom of breath it is the hour in which one can live a European life and seek without on the verandas some cooling gentle zephyr it seems as if a metallic roof was then interposed between the sun and the earth which retaining the heat and suffering only the light to pass offers beneath its shelter a reparative repose This much desired hour had at last sounded from the clock of the cathedral While the earliest stars were rising above the horizon the numerous promenaders were traversing the streets of Lima wrapped in their light mantles and conversing gravely on the most trivial affairs There was a great movement of the populace on the Plaza Mayor that forum of the ancient city of kings artisans were profiting by the coolness to quit their daily labors they circulated actively among the crowd crying their various merchandise the ladies of Lima carefully enveloped in the mantillas which mask their countenances with the exception of the right eye darted stealthy glances on the surrounding masses they undulated through the groups of smokers like foam at the will of the waves other senoras in ball costume coiffed only with their abundant hair or some natural flowers passed in large caleches throwing on the caballeros nonchalant regards     The Pearl of Lima: A Story of True Love Jules
