Pearls For An Infidel:

Pearls for an Infidel Michael A. Durney, 2015-03-11 Veteran army specialist Adam Moss is on the hunt tasked with locating the source of electronic transmissions in the mountains of Afghanistan's Hindu Kush. What he doesn't realize is that the men he hunts stalk him in turn with a very specific purpose in mind. Kat Adam's wife doesn't think anything of it when she emails him a "we miss you" message with a photo of herself and TJ, the couple's three year old son. She certainly doesn't realize a Taliban infiltrator will redirect her loving email to jihadists delivering Adam into his enemies hands. With TJ and Adam held captive by US based jihadist cell forces, Kat participates in a plot to strike deep into the American heartland and assassinate the President's children. The success or failure of the mission lies with Kat, a weapon beautifully camouflaged to hide its true nature and how far she will go to protect her own family. Dark, suspenseful and all too probable, Pearls for an Infidel explores how alarmingly vulnerable US military families are to acts of terrorism and how terrorist cells can use America's cherished open society and freedoms to strike back in retribution for its foreign entanglements.

"A Pearl of Powerful Learning": The University of Cracow in the Fifteenth Century Paul Knoll, 2016-08-09 Winner of The Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences of America's 2018 Oskar Halecki Award and Winner of the Early Slavic Studies Association 2016 Book Prize. The first fully developed history of the University of Cracow in this period in over a century, A Pearl of Powerful Learning: The University of Cracow in the Fifteenth Century places the school in the context of late medieval universities, traces the process of its foundation, analyzes its institutional growth, its setting in the Polish royal capital, its role in national life, and provides a social and geographical profile of students and faculty. The book includes extended treatment of the content of intellectual life and accomplishments of the school with reference to the works of its most important scholars in the medieval arts, curriculum, medicine, law and theology. The emergence of early Renaissance humanist interests at the university is also discussed. Winner of the Early Slavic Studies Association 2016 Book Prize for most outstanding recent scholarly monograph on pre-modern Slavdom. The work was described by the prize committee as "A thoughtful, highly informed and nuanced history of the University of Cracow, an important institution in a pivotal period of Poland's history. Knoll's treatment of such important issues as the role of the University in national life and the controversial and highly technical matter of the impact of Humanism are dealt with tactfully and thoughtfully. The book will become the definitive work on this topic and will ensure that the material will rapidly be absorbed into general histories of education and of universities in the Renaissance." Winner of The Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences of America's 2018 Oskar Halecki Award. This award recognizes a book of particular value and significance dealing with the Polish experience and is named after the distinguished 20th century Polish medieval historian Oskar Halecki who was one of the founders of PIASA. Professor Knoll will be recognized for this award during the 77th Annual Meeting of PIASA in Gdansk, Poland in June.

Voices in the Night Flora Annie Webster Steel, 1900 The new year was already some hours old but the world to which it had come was still dark

Dark with a curious obscurity that was absolutely opaque yet faintly luminous because of the white fog which lay on all things and hid them from the stars for the sky above was clear cold almost frosty That was why the fog born not of cool vapour seeking for cloud life among the winds of heaven but of hot smoke loving the warmth of dust and ashes clung so closely to the earth to its birthplace It was an acrid bitter smoke not even due to the dead hearthfires of a dead day since they like all else pertaining to the domestic life of India give small outward sign of existence but to the smouldering piles of litter and refuse which are lit every evening upon the outskirts of human habitation Dull heaps with a minimum of fire a maximum of smoke where the humanity which has produced the litter the refuse gathers for gossip or for warmth Even in the fields beyond the multitude of men where some long limbed peasant watching his hope of harvest dozes by a solitary fire this same smoke rises in a solid column until beaten down by the colder moister air above it drifts sideways to spread like a vast cobweb over the dew set carpet of green corn Taken from prologue
