Artistic Practices and Cultural Transfer in Early Modern Italy Allison Sherman, 2017-07-05 For too long the centre of the Renaissance has been considered to be Rome and the art produced in or inspired by it This collection of essays dedicated to Deborah Howard brings together an impressive group of internationally recognised scholars of art and architecture to showcase both the diversity within and the porosity between the centre and periphery in Renaissance art Without abandoning Rome but together with other centres of art production the essays both shift their focus away from conventional categories and bring together recent trends in Renaissance studies notably a focus on cultural contact material culture and historiography They explore the material mechanisms for the transmission and evolution of ideas artistic training and networks as well as the dynamics of collaboration and exchange between artists theorists and patrons The chapters each with a wealth of groundbreaking research and previously unpublished documentary evidence as well as innovative methodologies reinterpret Italian art relating to canonical sites and artists such as Michelangelo Titian Tintoretto Veronese and Sebastiano del Piombo in addition to showcasing the work of several hitherto neglected architects painters and an inimitable engineer inventor

Dreaming, Healing and Imaginative Arts Practice Kathleen Connellan, 2019-03-27 In Dreaming Healing and Imaginative Arts Practice Kathleen Anne Connellan brings dream theory together with art practice and art psychotherapy to demonstrate how releasing the imagination can open up processes of healing In this interdisciplinary and richly innovative book Connellan focuses on nocturnal dreams day dreams memory and reverie and she explores how to access depict and use these dream images to discover personal healing Unlike other dream journals Connellan encourages visual recording and personal experimentation with a variety of materials and modalities regardless of artistic ability Each chapter is divided into a theoretical and practical half where the theoretical section addresses the foundations of dream theory and philosophy and the practical section offers step by step exercises that lead you to the creation of something restorative Connellan covers a theme in each chapter which helps merge the unconscious with the conscious the nature of dreaming and the constitution of the psyche the archetype and our shadow selves belonging moving pain and pleasure and all the senses in remembering Dreaming Healing and Imaginative Arts Practice is a unique blend of scholarly research beautiful illustration and hands on practicality that allows the reader to interpret their dreams for self expression and self knowledge This work will be of great interest to those studying post graduate psychology social work art and arts therapy and an essential resource for art therapists creative therapists alternative psychotherapists and social workers in practice and in training
