The Critic's Notebook, 1950      The Lock Haven Bulletin, 1959      Robert Frost and Northern Irish Poetry Rachel

Buxton, 2004-05-27 In this incisive and highly readable study Rachel Buxton offers a much needed assessment of Frost's significance for Northern Irish poetry of the past half century Drawing upon a diverse range of previously unpublished archival sources including juvenilia correspondence and drafts of poems Robert Frost and Northern Irish Poetry takes as its particular focus the triangular dynamic of Frost Seamus Heaney and Paul Muldoon Buxton explores the differing strengths which each Irish poet finds in Frost's work while Heaney is drawn primarily to the Frost persona and to the sound of sense it is the studied slyness and wryness of the American's poetry the complicating undertow which Muldoon values This appraisal of Frost in a non American context not only enables a fuller appreciation of Heaney's and Muldoon's poetry but also provides valuable insight into the nature of trans national and trans generational poetic influence Engaging with the politics of Irish American literary connections while providing a subtle analysis of the intertextual relationships between these three key twentieth century poets Robert Frost and Northern Irish Poetry is a pioneering work      Walter de La Mare. - New York

Literary Scholarship Norman Foerster, John Calvin McGalliard, René Wellek, Austin Warren, Wilbur Schramm, 1941 The authors of this study deplore the present gulf that lies between the creative writer and the scholar In five stimulating essays on letters language literary history criticism and imaginative writing they challenge our prevailing pedantries and offer a program for revitalizing literary scholarship in the universities Authoritative and brilliantly written this book anticipates a fuller place for humane learning in American life Originally published in 1941 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value      American Literary Scholarship ALS, American Literary Scholarship, 1984-06 Essayists survey the recent thought and research concerning outstanding authors trends and movements in American literature      The First World War and the Mobilization of Biblical Scholarship Andrew Mein, Nathan MacDonald, Matthew A. Collins, Claudia V. Camp, 2020-07-23 This fascinating collection of essays charts for the first time the range of responses by scholars on both sides of the conflict to the outbreak of war in August 1914 The volume examines how biblical scholars like their compatriots from every walk of life responded to the great crisis they faced and with relatively few exceptions were keen to contribute to the war effort Some joined up as soldiers More commonly however biblical scholars and theologians put pen to paper as part of the torrent of patriotic publication that arose both in the United Kingdom and in Germany The contributors reveal that in many cases scholars were repeating or refining common arguments about the responsibility for the war In Germany and Britain where the Bible was still central to a Protestant national culture we also find numerous more specialized works where biblical scholars brought their own disciplinary expertise to bear on the matter of war in general and this war in particular The volume's contributors thus offer new insights into the place of both the Bible and biblical scholarship in early 20th century culture      Trends of Scholarship in the Modern Language Association of America Modern Language Association of America, 1937      The Idea of the Humanities, and Other Essays Critical and Historical Ronald Salmon Crane, 1967      The Lock Haven Review , 1963      Popular Science , 1998-03 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better      The Cambridge Review , 1917      The Armed Vision Stanley Edgar Hyman, 1955      The Spectator , 1885      Basic problems, principles, and methods Pitirim Aleksandrovich Sorokin, 1962      Social and Cultural Dynamics: Basic problems, principles, and methods Pitirim Aleksandrovich Sorokin, 1962
