A Study Guide for Randa Abdel-Fattah's "Does My Head Look Big in This?" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Randa Abdel Fattah's Does My Head Look Big in This excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs. Does My Head Look Big in This? Randa Abdel-Fattah, 2005. A witty and engaging story about being young and Muslim. Amal Abdel Hakim is a seventeen-year-old Australian Palestinian Muslim trying to come to grips with her various identities. It's hard enough being cool as a teenager when being one issue behind the latest Cosmo is enough to disqualify you from the in-group. Try wearing a veil and talking intimately about personal issues and you know you're in for a tough time at school in Australia. Luckily, her friends support her, although they've got troubles of their own. Simone, blonde, gorgeous, and overweight, has serious image issues, and Leila's really intelligent, but her parents are more interested in her getting a marriage certificate than her high school certificate. Maybe Amal's problems are not as bad as she thinks. Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15. Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives, and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read. It explores a great variety of works, genres, and formats, but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes, protagonists, and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers. It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they're reading, and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs. In addition to traditional genre chapters, Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction, poetry, short stories, and drama, cover art, picture books, illustrated literature, and graphic novels and film. It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature, they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with. The book's discussion of literary language, including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms, enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books. It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading.

Keywords for Children's Literature Philip Nel, Lissa Paul, 2011-06-13. 49 original essays on the essential terms and concepts in children's literature. Teaching to Exceed the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards Richard Beach, Allen Webb, Amanda Haertling Thein, 2015-12-07. Timely, thoughtful, and comprehensive, this text directly supports pre-service and in-service teachers in developing curriculum and instruction that both addresses and exceeds the requirements of the Common Core State Standards. Adopting a critical inquiry approach, it demonstrates how the Standards' highest and best intentions for student success can be implemented from a critical, culturally relevant perspective, firmly grounded in current literacy learning theory and research It provides specific examples of teachers using the critical inquiry curriculum framework of identifying problems and issues adopting alternative perspectives and entertaining change in their classrooms to illustrate how the Standards can not only be addressed but also surpassed through engaging instruction The Second Edition provides new material on adopting a critical inquiry approach to enhance student engagement and critical thinking planning instruction to effectively implement the CCSS in the classroom fostering critical response to literary and informational texts using YA literature and literature by authors of color integrating drama activities into literature and speaking listening instruction teaching informational explanatory argumentative and narrative writing working with ELL students to address the language Standards using digital tools and apps to respond to and create digital texts employing formative assessment to provide supportive feedback preparing students for the PARCC and Smarter Balanced assessments using the book s wiki site <http://englishccss.pbworks.com> for further resources
