Out in the Midday Sun Margaret Shennan,2015-11-01 The story of British Malaya and Singapore from the days of Victorian pioneers to the denouement of independence is a momentous episode in Britain's colonial past Through memoirs letters and interviews Margaret Shennan chronicles its halcyon years the two World Wars economic depression and diaspora revealing the attitudes of the diverse quixotic characters of this now quite vanished world The British came as fortune seekers to exploit Asian trade shipped through Penang and Singapore They found a mature Asian culture in a land of palm fringed shores and primeval jungle Like modern Romans they built townships defences communications and hill stations they spurred a rivalry between the fledgling commercial centres of Singapore Penang and Kuala Lumpur and they superimposed their law and established an idiosyncratic political system They also developed the tin and rubber of the Malay States encouraging Chinese and Indian immigrants by their open door policy The outcome was a vibrant multi racial society the most cosmopolitan in the East

Elspeth Huxley captivated readers throughout the world with her memories of an African childhood in THE FLAME TREES OF THIKA and THE MOTTLED LIZARD In this final volume of her trilogy she tells the story of her adult life in Africa in which the vigorously evoked personalities from the pioneer Lord Delamere and Baroness Blixen to Jomo Kenyatta blend with her superb description of the social cultural and political upheavals of the time An accomplished story teller she weaves anecdotes character sketches political history together without losing her thread or the readers momentum SUNDAY TIMES She evokes it all lovingly but astringently especially the glittering often scandalous life of the young aristocrats who lived in Happy Valley DAILY EXPRESS

Sermons On Selected Lessons Of The New Testament St. Augustine of Hippo,2012 This is the extended and annotated edition including an extensive biographical annotation about the author and his life The Sermons of St Augustine besides their other excellencies furnish a beautiful picture of perhaps the deepest and most powerful mind of the Western Church adapting itself to the little ones of Christ In them he who has furnished the mould for all the most thoughtful minds for fourteen hundred years is seen forming with loving tenderness the babes in Christ Very touching is the child like simplicity with which he gradually leads them through what to them were difficulties watching all the while whether he made himself clear to them keeping up their attention pleased at their understanding dreading their approbation and leading them off from himself to some practical result Very touching the tenderness with which he at times reproves the allowance which he makes for human infirmities and for those in secular life if they will not make their infirmities their boast or in allowed duties and indulgences forget God But his very simplicity precludes the necessity of any preface His Sermons explain themselves They appear from a passage in the Commentary on the Psalms to have been often taken down in writing
