Outbreak Games Home Invasion:

Home Invasion Horrors Ryan Izay,2025-07-11 Home invasion narratives have been around nearly as long as cinema itself popularized by the silent era's race to the rescue movies and classic Hollywood's gangster raid films and influenced by the slasher and stalker sub genres. They emerged as a fully formed sub genre following the success of major releases like The Strangers 2008 and The Purge 2013 with more than 100 such films issued in the 2010s alone. Commonalities and differences can be found in the home invasion films featuring criminals, stalkers and psychopaths in addition to the inverted and hybrid releases that revise established narratives. This book examines the history, cinematic and societal influences and reasons for the popularity of home invasion films, offering potential allegorical readings of the narratives and a comprehensive list of these films.

Gangland Sydney James Morton, Susanna Lobe, 2011 Gangland Sydney details the exploits of an unforgettable cast of villains, crooks and mobsters who have defined the criminal and gangland scene in Sydney from the mid 1800s to the present day. In this compelling book, Britain's top true crime author James Morton and barrister and legal broadcaster Susanna Lobe track the rise and fall of Sydney's standover men, contract killers, robbers, brothel keepers, biker gangs and drug dealers, and also examine the role of police, politicians and lawyers who have helped and hindered the growth of these criminal empires. Vivid and explosive, Gangland Sydney is a compulsive reading.

Extreme Cinema Aaron Kerner, 2016-06-14 Extreme Cinema examines the highly stylized treatment of sex and violence in post-millennial transnational cinema where the governing convention is not the narrative but the spectacle. Using profound experiments in form and composition, including jarring editing, extreme close-ups, visual disorientation, and sounds that straddle the boundary between non-diegetic and diegetic registers, this mode of cinema dwells instead on the exhibition of intense violence and an acute intimacy with the sexual body. Interrogating works such as Wetlands and A Serbian Film, as well as the subculture of YouTube reaction videos, Aaron Michael Kerner and Jonathan L. Knapp demonstrate the way content and form combine in extreme cinema to affectively manipulate the viewing body.
