Isocrates,1864    The Panegyricus of Isocrates C. C. Felton,2017-06-09 Excerpt from The Panegyricus of Isocrates From the Text of Bremi With English Notes The wealth of Isocrates exposed him to the usual burden some ofices to which the possessors of property at Athens were liable He served the expensive liturgy of trierarch B C 352 with great magnificence About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www forgottenbooks com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works    Panegyricus Isocrates,2015-12-16 Isocrates 436 338 B C was an ancient Athenian orator rhetorician and teacher whose writings are an important historical source on the intellectual and political life of the Golden Age of Athens The school he founded differed markedly in its aims from the Academy of Plato but it was influential in its time and attracted students from across the Greek world Of his hundred pupils the most notable were Timotheus the Athenian general prominent in Athens history between 378 and 355 Nicocles the ruler of Salamis in Cyprus and the two greatest Greek historians of the 4th century Ephorus who wrote a universal history and Theopompos who wrote the history of Philip II of Macedon As a result his influence permeated both politics and literature Despite his influence his chief aim was rhetoric In fact Isocrates had contempt for the philosophical subtleties of the Platonic circle Unfortunately his discussion in the speeches Against the Sophists and in On the Exchange tells one more of what he objected to in other systems than of what he actually had in his own but it can be safely asserted that whereas the training of the Platonic Academy was essentially philosophical that of Isocrates was almost entirely about the art of persuasion In his Socratic dialogues Plato was often dismissive of Rhetoricians indicating the conflict between the two groups      Ad demonicum et Panegyricus
