Papal Elections In The Age Of Transition 1878-1922:

Papal Elections in the Age of Transition, 1878-1922 Francis A. Burkle-Young, 2000-01-01 The startling changes that have taken place within the Catholic Church since World War II were the direct accomplishments of Pius XII and his successors. These modern popes however formed their policies and wrought these changes based on the work of four transitional popes who preceded them: Leo XIII (1878-1903) who re-established a direct link between the papacy and the lay communicant; Pius X (1903-1914) who was a conservative reactionary; Benedict XV (1914-1922) and Pius XI (1922-1939) who revived and extended Leo's efforts to modernize the Church and its policies. Based largely on unpublished or ephemeral materials, Papal Elections in the Age of Transition recounts the stories of how these four men rose to the papal throne, including previously unpublished details of the conclaves. This fascinating narrative sheds new light on the rise to power of the popes who prepared the way for the Catholic Church at the dawn of the twenty-first century.

On the Dignity of Society F. Russell Hittinger, 2024-05 In this collection of essays, Francis Russell Hittinger shows that Catholic social teaching is not only an articulate defense of the dignity of the human person but perhaps more fundamentally an elucidation of the dignity of society. Indeed, Hittinger enables us to see that one cannot properly defend the dignity of the person without also showing the dignity of societies in which human persons as naturally familial, political and ecclesial animals seek their own perfection in communion with others. Hittinger has been a renowned scholar of Catholic social doctrine for some time now and the essays presented here are the fruit of his mature thinking on the topic over the course of many years. As each chapter shows, Hittinger's historically important body of work on Catholic moral and social philosophy and theology is rooted in natural law theory and Thomistic philosophy but also animated by St. Augustine's thought and thus consistently sensitive to historical contexts and arenas for moral and theological disputation. These magisterial essays therefore integrate historical studies of the development of Catholic social teaching with systematic exposition of the theological coherence of that tradition while also articulating the essential role of philosophy and natural law within both.

The volume is divided into three parts. The first part is comprised of six essays on Catholic social teaching; the second part is made up of six essays on natural law and its role in social doctrine; and the third part includes two essays discussing the first principles of the Church's teaching on social issues. This collection will no doubt become a standard in the field of scholarship on Catholic social teaching.

Behind Locked Doors F. Baumgartner, 2003-12-19 Chronicles the history of the Papal Conclave process for selecting a new pope and traces the history of papal elections and the transfer of power in the Vatican.

An Accidental Pope Miroslaw Aleksander Miernik, 2025-10-30 This collection offers insight into the political, religious, and literary themes in Frederick Rolfe's Hadrian the Seventh. This includes the Catholic Church's political role, its doctrines in the early 20th century, the interplay of individualism and conservatism, and offers new perspectives on the novel's genre and its place in literary history.
