Partnership Environment Facility Independent Evaluation:

Environmental Evaluation and Global Development Institutions Geeta Batra, Juha I. Uitto, Osvaldo N. Feinstein, 2021-10-10
Evaluation is increasingly important for finding sustainable solutions for the people and the planet based on a systematic analysis of what works for whom and under what circumstances and to contribute to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals as they pertain to the environment This book explores why the Global Environment Facility GEF invests in evaluation for accountability and learning to inform its decision making on programming priorities and how this leads to wiser funding decisions and better program performance on the ground The book is based on real life experiences of how to make evaluation count for international environmental action Drawing upon comprehensive evaluations of the GEF it provides unique insights from authors responsible for designing implementing and disseminating the findings of the evaluations No other multilateral development or environment agency places evaluation fully at the center of their decision making The book outlines the trends in the global environment and the changing landscape of international environmental finance It defines the role of the GEF and explains its institutional framework and the unique partnership that involves donor and recipient countries multilateral development banks UN agencies nongovernmental organizations NGOs and national agencies in the developing countries Further it provides useful pointers to other organizations wishing to enhance evidence based decision making for improving their relevance performance and impact The book will be most suitable for graduate level specialized study in a variety of disciplines such as environmental and development economics political science international relations geography sociology and social anthropology The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Independent Evaluation at the Asian Development Bank Olivier Serrat, 2007      Multilateral Aid 2015 Better Partnerships for a Post-2015 World OECD, 2015-07-14 Multilateral Aid 2015 identifies policy areas where action is most needed to enable well functioning multilaterals in the post 2015 era      Evaluating Climate Change Action for Sustainable Development Juha I. Uitto, Jyotsna Puri, Rob D. van den Berg, 2017-01-11 This book is open access under a Creative Commons license This authoritative book presents the ever progressing state of the art in evaluating climate change strategies and action It builds upon a selection of relevant and practical papers and presentations given at the 2nd International Conference on Evaluating Climate Change and Development held in Washington DC in 2014 and includes perspectives from independent evaluations of the major international organisations supporting climate action in developing countries such as the Global Environment Facility The first section of the book sets the stage and provides an overview of independent evaluations carried out by multilateral development banks and development organisations Important topics include how policies and organisations aim to achieve impact and how this is measured whether climate change is mainstreamed into other development programs and whether operations are meeting the urgency of climate change challenges The following sections focus on evaluation of climate change projects and policies as they link to development from the perspective of international organisations NGO s multilateral and bilateral aid agencies and academia The authors share methodologies or approaches used to better understand problems and assess interventions strategies and policies They also share challenges encountered what was done to solve these and lessons learned from evaluations Collectively the authors illustrate the importance of evaluation in providing evidence to guide policy change to informed decision making

The World Bank Group's Partnership with the Global Environment Facility The World Bank,2015-11-18 The World Bank Group was a principal founding partner of the Global Environment Facility GEF in its pilot phase in 1991 and of the restructured GEF in 1994 The Bank plays three different roles in the GEF a as trustee of the GEF and related trust funds b as implementing agency including the implementation of private sector GEF projects by the International Finance Corporation IFC and c as the host organization of the functionally independent GEF secretariat Focusing primarily on the role of the Bank as an implementing agency this review documents how the partnership that the GEF and the World Bank Group established in the early 1990s has evolved over time offers explanations for observed changes and draws a number of lessons The review addresses the following issues The mutual relevance of the World Bank Group and the GEF Inter organizational coordination along the World Bank Group GEF project cycle The introduction of the GEF s resource allocation systems in 2006 and 2010 The evolution and effectiveness of the Bank Group s GEF portfolio Catalytic approaches in the Bank Group GEF partnership co financing blending and mainstreaming The World Bank s corporate activities as a GEF implementing agency The principal purposes of this review are a to help improve the relevance and effectiveness of the Bank Group s partnership with the GEF and b to draw lessons for the Bank Group s partnership with the GEF and other large global partnership programs

Transformational Change for People and the Planet Juha I. Uitto,Geeta Batra,2022-01-13 This Open Access book deals with the pressing question of how to achieve transformational change that reconciles development with environmental sustainability It particularly focuses on the role of evaluation in finding sustainable solutions Environment and development are closely interlinked as are human health and ecosystem health The pandemic that began in 2020 demonstrated in no uncertain terms how destruction of habitats has allowed hitherto unknown pathogens spill over to humans wreaking havoc on people s lives and livelihoods We are already seeing the impacts of global climate change in terms of heatwaves forest fires and increased storms The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs explicitly recognize the equal importance of the social economic and environmental dimensions of development In these turbulent times when humankind faces multiple complex challenges it is essential to know that our responses are effective and that they make a positive difference Evaluation can provide invaluable lessons to how we design policies strategies and programs and how we allocate limited resources between competing priorities This book brings together key thinkers and practitioners from the public and private sectors from major multilateral organizations and from bilateral donor agencies to present the latest knowledge and experience on how to evaluate interventions in the nexus of environment and development. The book does not promote any particular approach or methodology but rather emphasizes the need for mixed methods to address the question at hand in the best and most suitable manner. It covers cases from a variety of fields from climate change mitigation and adaptation, energy efficiency and renewable energy, natural resources management, biodiversity conservation and more. This book is not a conference proceedings although it has its roots in the Third International Conference on Evaluating Environment and Development organized by the GEF Independent Evaluation Office in October 2019. The conference brought together a larger number of established and upcoming evaluators, researchers and evaluation users from the Global North and South representing a wide variety of organizations to discuss the frontiers of environment and development evaluation. Following the conference, the editors identified and contacted the participants who made key contributions at the conference and asked them to develop their ideas and papers into book chapters according to a coherent plan.

Challenges and Opportunities in Regional Governance of Ocean Ecosystems Lucia Fanning, Sebastian Unger, Robin Mahon, 2022-09-19

International Environmental Affairs, 1995. Annual Review of Development Effectiveness, 2009, Achieving Sustainable Development World Bank, 2009. The Annual Review of Development Effectiveness 2009 presents evidence on the World Bank's efforts in two areas. Part I tracks the outcomes of Bank projects and country programs and the evolution of monitoring and evaluation. M E Part II examines the Bank's support for environmentally sustainable development compatible with economic growth and poverty reduction. The Bank's project performance rebounded in 2008 allaying concerns about the weakened performance in 2007. As previous ARDEs have shown, project performance has been improving gradually for 15 years according to the traditional measure, percent of projects with satisfactory versus unsatisfactory outcomes. But IEG ratings of M E quality for completed projects indicate considerable room for progress. Information to assess impacts continues to be lacking although preliminary data suggests improvements in baseline data collection. Bank support for the environment has recovered since 2002 due to new sources of concessional finance. The outcomes of environment projects have improved in recent years. A growing number of regional projects are addressing the shared use of water resources. New global partnerships are deepening the Bank's involvement in climate change issues. But M E remains weak: three quarters of environment-related projects those managed by sectors other than environment lack reporting of environmental outcomes.

An Assessment of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's National Environmental Performance Track Program Scott Hassell, 2010. This report addresses the conceptual basis, design and implementation of the National Environmental Performance Track program. The voluntary program sought to encourage facilities to improve their environmental performance and provide a more collaborative relationship between facilities and regulators. While the program had mixed success EPA should continue to seek out new approaches to complement and enhance traditional regulatory approaches

The Top Books of the Year Partnership Environment Facility Independent Evaluation The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year.

Partnership Environment Facility Independent Evaluation : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph.

Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery.

Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting.

These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
