Passing Clouds A Winemakers Journey:

Passing Clouds Graeme Leith, 2015-03-01 Graeme Leith electrician Italophile and jack of all trades joined Melbourne s theatre collective at Carlton s famously innovative Pram Factory theatre and said Let there be light And there was Graeme Blundell Jack Hibberd Max Gillies and many others produced over 140 new Australian plays in ten years Like many of his generation Graeme left suburban Australia in the 1950s bound for London and Europe After a stint in Britain s atomic weapons industry he rode his Lambretta scooter to Perugia in Italy where he had his first taste of ethereal wine and fell in love But Graeme had also fallen for the idea of making wine and in the mid 1970s he and his partner Sue Mackinnon established Passing Clouds a vineyard in Victoria s Spa Country that produced award winning wines from the beginning Then tragedy struck In 1984 Graeme s beautiful and talented daughter Ondine and her boyfriend David vanished en route to the South Coast of New South Wales Ten days later their ute was found in Kings Cross where it had been abandoned by their killers Heartfelt and heartbreaking humorous and hilarious Passing Clouds tells of a life fully lived a life embracing the experience of fatherhood of triumph and disaster of joy and tragedy of ingenuity and sheer hard work and above all an unquenchable optimism deeply moving account of one man's return to the German town where he first pursued a career in winemaking and his attempt to reckon with the mental illness alcoholism and enduring relationships that defined the most formative chapter of his life. After an attempted suicide by hanging with his son in the next room author Patrick Dobson checks into a mental hospital clueless reeling from bone crushing depression and tortuous racing thoughts. A long overdue diagnosis of manic depression offers relief but brings his confused and eventful past into question. To make sense of his suicide attempt and deal with his past he returns to Germany where three decades earlier he arrived as twenty two year old lost drunk and in the throes of untreated mental illness in search of a new life and with dreams of becoming a winemaker. The sublime Mosel vineyards and the ancient city of Trier changed his life forever. Ferment charts his days in Trier's vineyards and cellars and the enduring friendships that would define his life. A winemaker and his wife become like parents to him. In their son he finds a brother whose death years later sends Dobson into a suicidal tailspin. His friends once apprentices like himself become leaders in their fields an art historian and church restoration expert an art and architectural glass craftsman a painter and photographer and a theologian journalist. The relationships he builds with them become hallmarks of a life well lived. In Ferment Dobson reconnects with the people who stood by him through his dissolution and eventual recovery. In these relationships he seeks who he was and how his time in Germany changed him. He peers into his memory to understand how manic depression and alcoholism affected who he was then and how his time in Germany made him who he's become.
