

Peace Processes

- 1 Peace negotiations are one of the most common ways of ending conflict.

Locations of peace processes around the world

Conflicts are also ended by one side 'winning' the conflict but even then negotiations and agreements may be needed to deal with its aftermath.

- 2 A 'handshake moment' of a peace agreement between the main warring parties receives attention, but is only one moment in a longer peace process.

Processes seldom unfold in a straightforward line from violence to peace. Often talks are started, breakdown and restart.

- 3 Most of these agreements deal with conflict within states. Some deal with conflicts between states.

Breakdown of agreements by inter-state and intra-state

- 5 Increasingly conflict can be multi-level and requires multi-leveled peace processes

Peace processes are becoming more complex, needing agreements that are: local; national; international.

Breakdown of agreement type by inter-state, intra-state and inter-intra-state

Many local agreements have been signed in: Kenya, Somalia, South Sudan, Libya, Yemen and Syria.

- 4 If we count peace agreements, since 1990, there have been over 1500 signed in around 150 different peace processes over 35 years.

These include agreements:

to establish ceasefire

to get into talks

about how to resolve the conflict

to implement previous agreements

The number of agreements from each stage in an average peace process
