Peace And Conflict Studies A Reader:

Peace and Conflict Studies Charles Webel, Jørgen Johansen, 2012 Peace and Conflict Studies A Reader is a comprehensive and intensive introduction to the key works in this growing field. Presenting a range of theories, methodologies and approaches to understanding peace and to transforming conflict, this edited volume contains both classic and cutting edge contemporary analyses. The text is divided into six general sections: PART I Peace Studies, Peace Education and Peace; PART II Peace Theories and Peace Movements; PART III The Meanings and Nature of Conflict; PART IV Conflict Analysis, Transformation and Prevention; PART V Nonviolent Action and Political Change; PART VI Building Institutions and Cultures of Peace. With an extensive introduction as well as recommendations for further reading and questions for the classroom, Peace and Conflict Studies A Reader will be essential reading for students, teachers and practitioners of peace and conflict studies and conflict resolution. It is also highly recommended for students of peace operations, peacebuilding, sociology, international security and IR in general.

Peace and Conflict Studies Charles Webel, Jørgen Johansen, 2012

Approaches to Peace David P. Barash, 2010 Approaches to Peace provides a unique and interdisciplinary sampling of classic articles and short literary selections focusing on the diverse aspects of peace and conflict studies. Readings cover the causes of war and proposed means of preventing it and reflect upon the universal concern for positive peace. The material examines nonviolence, movements, peace movements, religious inspirations and our future prospects for peace. The book's balanced and unbiased approach makes it easily adaptable to both general discussions of peace and conflict as well as the rapidly changing issues of the moment. Approaches to Peace is able to stand on its own as a foundation text in any introductory peace studies course. It is also compact enough to use as a supplement with other more specialized readings or used in conjunction with a text. Each selection is prefaced by a short introduction highlighting the author's background, the work's historical context and the selection's significance in terms of the big picture. Study questions and a list of suggested readings at the end of each selection also provide a useful resource for students.

Peace and Conflict Studies Andria K. Wisler, Michael Loadenthal, 2019-10-07 This introductory textbook surveys the evolutions of the field's history, concepts, actors, actions and pedagogies of the growing transdisciplinary field of Peace and Conflict Studies. The book provides an inclusive historical overview of the field and a thorough conceptual framework of peace, conflict, violence and related terminology. It offers readers an introduction to the current issues dominating this growing academic field as well as to the movements and structures that contribute to or hinder the creation of a more just and peaceful world. New in-depth case studies will enable readers to understand the lived realities of peace action. From using this textbook, students will develop a thorough understanding of the economic, socio-cultural and political dimensions of peace and justice across the spectrum from micro-neighborhood to macro-global levels, become familiar with the array of inter-transnational and local actors in the pursuit or destruction of peace and justice and identify, compare and critique the assumptions, benefits and limitations of individuals and societies approaches to peace including their own Throughout Peace Studies is understood as practical and do able with many applications from classrooms to militaries to transnational corporations The book mainstreams issues often analyzed separately from traditional Peace Studies tracks such as gender religion international development climate change and terrorism This book will be essential reading for students of peace and conflict studies conflict resolution and peace and justice courses and recommended for students of war and conflict studies and IR Security Studies
