

POLS 1101: American Government (Fall 2022)

Chapter 4 Study Guide

This is your study guide for Chapter 4. The first exam will be based on Chapters 1-4. Each chapter has a separate study guide document that you can access in Top Hat under Study Guides.

Ch. 4: Federalism

To make it easier to find the information in the textbook, this study guide is organized by the major sections of the chapter. In Top Hat, if you open the Index panel in Fullscreen mode for Chapter 4, you will be able to see these sections at a glance and jump right to them.

Section 2: Federalism versus the Alternatives

- What is the key feature of a confederacy? How does this feature contrast with federalism and unitary national government? Confederacy has a central government that only governs the states (other governments) and not individual people. This is the “Great and radical vice”-Hamilton. In a unitary government the central government claims direct authority over individual people. In a federal system, government authority is divided and shared between central and state gov.
- What are the key differences between a federal system and unitary national government? The key difference between federal and unitary national gov is the federal government is not tightly controlled by member state governments. In a unitary government there is no separate member states or the central government can unilaterally alter legal power and jurisdictions.
- What does “reserved power” entail in terms of state authority in the U.S. Federal system? These reserved powers are determined by the constitution and can't be taken away. Exclusive state authority i.e; creating public schools, regulating car traffic, regulating economic activities with no relation to or affect outside the state, family law, etc
- How does Article IV, Section 3 of the U.S. Constitution protect the territorial independence of states? The constitution makes it clear that no current state geographic boundaries can be altered without consent of state legislatures. Why does this render the United States a federal system rather than a unitary national government? Reason why the US is not a unitary gov. In a unitary national if congress wanted to divide GA and merge it with Alabama they could under this form of gov.

Section 3: Why Federalism?

Why a Union?

- Be sure to know and understand the arguments made by pro-unionists. Why do they see a united country as better than a disunited country?

Pro Unionists believe that a disunited country will make it more difficult to resolve conflict peacefully. The governments relate to each other diplomatically and militarily.
