Pearson's Comprehensive Medical Assisting Pearson/Prentice Hall, 2007-03 Pearson's Comprehensive Medical Assisting Nina Beaman, Lorraine Fleming-McPhillips, 2007 This book is intended as an introduction to medical assisting courses. Having a balanced understanding of legal and ethical concepts and applying them to a multitude of real life clinical and administrative situations is essential to any health professional. This text provides this balance by helping health professionals understand both the intention as well as the realities of the law. All the while preparing them for the major ethical considerations and dilemmas they may encounter. Written in a straightforward manner aimed at health professionals in a variety of settings this book introduces the reader to many topics affecting health care today such as the legal system, patient physician relationship, professional liability and malpractice prevention, confidentiality, physician's public duties, medical records and bioethical issues. Through this introduction healthcare professionals will better understand the ethical obligations to the patient, the employer and themselves the law and how it is applied. Expanded end of chapter workbook exercises, a reinforcement of key concepts, legal cases pertaining to patient confidentiality, managed care and death and dying, integrated throughout the book, appendices as a great reference tool for both the student and the professional, a thorough compilation of codes of ethics, a listing of health care regulatory agencies and useful medical websites. Additional cases are available in the appendix that can be used to expand the discussion and as a reference tool for additional clarification. Med tips provide quick information about the law and ethics. This historical context increases student understanding of how to apply the law today and the brief scenarios and hints are an ideal resource for class discussions.

Pearson's Comprehensive Medical Assisting Kristiana D. Routh, 2022-03 Medical assistants connect with people every hour of every day. They are the first line of medical care for many patients. To assist the physician with examining and treating patients, medical assistants must have a thorough knowledge of the structure and systems of the human body as well as a thorough knowledge of the procedures the physician performs and the procedures the medical assistant performs. At the same time, medical assistants must make every patient in a physician's office feel secure. They must comfort, They must listen, They must explain, They must demonstrate. Medical assistants help every patient feel like the only patient. Pearson's Comprehensive Medical Assisting Nina Beaman, Kristiana Sue Routh, Lorraine M.
