Media Today Joseph Turow, 2016-10-04 Media Today uses convergence as a lens that puts students at the center of the profound changes in the 21st century media world. Through the convergence lens they learn to think critically about the role of media today and what these changes mean for their lives presently and in the future. The book's media systems approach helps students to look carefully at how media content is created, distributed and exhibited in the new world that the digital revolution has created. From newspapers to video games and social networking to mobile platforms, Media Today prepares students to live in the digital world of media.

The American Historical Imaginary Caroline Guthrie, 2022-10-14 In The American Historical Imaginary: Contested Narratives of the Past in Mass Culture, Caroline Guthrie examines the American relationship to versions of the past that are known to be untrue and asks why do these myths persist and why do so many people hold them so dear? To answer these questions she examines popular sites where fictional versions of history are formed, played through and solidified. From television's reality show winners and time travelers to the Magic Kingdom in Walt Disney World to the movies of Quentin Tarantino, this book examines how mass culture imagines and reimagines the most controversial and painful parts of American history. In doing so, Guthrie explores how contemporary ideas of national identity are tied to particular versions of history that valorize white masculinity and ignores oppression and resistance. Through her explanation and analysis of what she calls the historical imaginary, Guthrie offers new ways of attempting to combat harmful myths of the past through the imaginative engagements they have dominated for so long.
