A Brain Tumor Changes Everything Jan Woltmann, 2021-03-08 What would you do if an inoperable tumor occupied the brainstem of your young adult son What would your next steps be How would you begin to pray In 2011 Jan Woltmann's twenty one year old son Nate was diagnosed with brain cancer the cancer was lethal the situation tragic and hope gone Medical science did everything possible through aggressive radiation and the strongest chemotherapy to delay the tumor's advance even as Jan and her husband slipped deeper into darkness and grief The couple did all the things parents do in the wake of heartbreak they wept ached prayed and planned for the worst loss imaginable This is a story about suffering that sets a place for you at the kitchen table around the Christmas tree and inside the waiting rooms at CancerCare This is a story for old souls those for whom life has ripened either suddenly or over time and who find themselves in search of life's mystery and meaning in the midst of sorrow Following a compelling medical narrative and textured by contemplative Christian thinkers A Brain Tumor Changes Everything speaks the language of grief seeks the presence of mercy and finds the surprise of God

Call Me Indian Fred Sasakamoose, 2021-05-18 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Fred Sasakamoose played in the NHL before First Nations people had the right to vote in Canada This page turner will have you cheering for Fast Freddy as he faces off against huge challenges both on and off the ice a great gift to every proud hockey fan Canadian and Indigenous person Wab Kinew Leader of the Manitoba NDP and author of The Reason You Walk Trailblazer Residential school Survivor First Treaty Indigenous player in the NHL All of these descriptions are true but none of them tell the whole story Fred Sasakamoose torn from his home at the age of seven endured the horrors of residential school for a decade before becoming one of 120 players in the most elite hockey league in the world He has been heralded as the first Indigenous player with Treaty status in the NHL making his official debut as a 1954 Chicago Black Hawks player on Hockey Night in Canada and teaching Foster Hewitt how to pronounce his name Sasakamoose played against such legends as Gordie Howe Jean Beliveau and Maurice Richard After twelve games he returned home When people tell Sasakamoose's story this is usually where they end it They say he left the NHL to return to the family and culture that the Canadian government had ripped away from him That returning to his family and home was more important to him than an NHL career But there was much more to his decision than that Understanding Sasakamoose's choice means acknowledging the dislocation and treatment of generations of Indigenous peoples It means considering how a man who spent his childhood as a ward of the government would hear those supposedly golden words You are Black Hawks property Sasakamoose's story was far from over once his NHL days concluded He continued to play for another decade in leagues around Western Canada He became a band councillor served as Chief and established athletic programs for kids He paved a way for youth to find solace and meaning in sports for generations to come Yet threaded through these impressive accomplishments were periods of heartbreak and unimaginable tragedy as well moments of passion and great joy This isn't just a hockey story Sasakamoose's groundbreaking memoir sheds
