Chong,2018-10-02 Selfish obscenely rich insular and opportunistic these remain how Chinese minorities in Indonesia are perceived by the indigenous population However far from being passive victims of discrimination and marginalisation Chong presents a forceful case in which Chinese Indonesians possess the agency to shape their future in the country particularly in the changing political business and socio cultural environment after the fall of Suharto While a lack of good governance that promotes the rule of law and accountability allows or even encourages some Chinese to maintain the status quo by perpetuating corrupt business practices inherited from Suharto s New Order regime there are other Chinese Indonesians who make full use of the democratic space opened up under the new administrations acting as agents of reform by participating in electoral politics and establishing inter ethnic socio cultural organisations Building on Anthony Giddens s structure agency theory and Pierre Bourdieu s notions of habitus and field Chong shows that the Chinese minorities have played an active role in the democratic process even though they continue to occupy an ambivalent position in Indonesia The Chinese Indonesians diverse strategies to safeguard their personal interests and cultural identities make a stimulating case study of what an ethnic minority could do to make a difference Backed by formidable research Chong has produced an intriguing and original view of the political social and economic activity of the still precariously placed Chinese minority in Indonesia Donald L Horowitz Duke University author of Constitutional Change and Democracy in Indonesia In this illuminating study Chong traces the political economy of Indonesia s ethnic Chinese minority as they navigate the country s post 1998 politics which is more free but still lacks strong rule of law Focusing especially on Medan and Surabaya she analyses how some have strongly supported reforms while many continue old practices of surviving and profiting by participating in massive corruption and extortion Jeffrey A Winters Northwestern University author of Oligarchy      Who's who in Australia ,2007      Asia Today ,1997      All-Asia Guide Philip Bowering,Robert Cottrell,1984      Fodor's Southeast Asia ,1995 The best guide to Southeast Asia completely updated Jungle treks smoldering volcanos and white sand beaches Colorful bazaars crafts villages reliable jewelers and electronics stores and where to get clothes made to order Wondrous golden palaces and ancient temple complexes Where to stay and eat no matter what your budget Memorable accommodations from beachside bungalows to luxurious mountaintop villas and swank urban palaces Stylish Pacific Rim cuisine high tea in Singapore tasty local delicacies from cafes noodle stands and hawker centers Fresh thorough practical from writers you can trust Costs hours descriptions and tips by the thousands All reviews based on visits by savvy writer residents 58 pages of maps vacation itineraries and more Important Contacts A to Z Smart Travel Tips Fodor s Choice What s Where Pleasures New complete index      Who's who in Australia 2008 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business
