Palestinian Walks Raja Shehadeh, 2010-07-09 Over two decades of turmoil and change in the Middle East steered via the history soaked landscape of Palestine This new edition includes a previously unpublished epigraph in the form of a walk When Raja Shehadeh first started hill walking in Palestine in the late 1970s he was not aware that he was travelling through a vanishing landscape These hills would have seemed familiar to Christ until the day concrete was poured over the flora and irreversible changes were brought about by those who claim a superior love of the land Six walks span a period of twenty six years in the hills around Ramallah in the Jerusalem wilderness and through the ravines by the Dead Sea Each walk takes place at a different stage of Palestinian history since 1982 the first in the empty pristine hills and the last amongst the settlements and the wall The reader senses the changing political atmosphere as well as the physical transformation of the landscape By recording how the land felt and looked before these calamities Raja Shehadeh attempts to preserve at least in words the Palestinian natural treasures that many Palestinians will never know
