It was a troubled period with disturbing changes in industry and agriculture and a constant dread of invasion and revolution. The comfortable tranquil country of her fiction is a complete contrast to the England in which she actually lived. From forced marriages and the sale of wives in marketplaces to boys and girls working down mines or as chimney sweeps this enthralling social history reveals how our ancestors worked, played and struggled to survive. Taking in the horror of ghosts and witches, bull baiting, highwaymen and the stench of corpses swinging on roadside gibbets this book is a must read for anyone wanting to discover the genuine story of Jane Austen's England and the background to her novels.

National Theatre Connections is an annual festival which brings new plays for young people to schools and youth theatres across the UK and Ireland. Commissioning exciting work from leading playwrights the festival exposes actors aged 13-19 to the world of professional theatre making giving them full control of a theatrical production from costume and set design to stage management and marketing campaigns. NT Connections have published over 150 original plays and regularly works with 500 theatre companies and 10,000 young people each year. This anthology brings together 10 new plays by some of the UK's most prolific and current writers and artists alongside notes on each of the texts exploring performance for schools and youth groups.

Salt Life is never plain sailing but when a new government initiative comes into place offering young people the chance to train and learn skills overseas droves of teens jump at the chance to secure their future. Once on board the transport ship the promises of the glossy advert seem a far cry from what lies ahead. A play about generations, choices and hope. Class. It's school election time and while most of the school is busy enjoying their lunch break a deadlock is taking place amongst the members of the school council. Bitter rivalries, secret alliances and false promises are laid bare. As a ruthless battle ensues who will win and does anyone really care? A play about politics, populism and the ping of a text message. The Sad Club. This is a musical about depression and anxiety. It's a collection of monologues, songs and duologues from all over time and space exploring what about living in this world stops us from being happy and how we might go about tackling those problems.

Chaos. A girl is locked in a room. A boy brings another boy flowers. A girl has tied herself to a railing. A boy doesn't know who he is. A girl worries about impending catastrophe. A woman jumps in front of a train. A boy's heart falls out of his chest. A butterfly has a broken wing. Stuff. Vinny's organising a surprise birthday party for his mate Anita. It's not going well. His choice of venue is a bit misguided. Anita's not keen on leaving the house and everyone else has their own stuff going on.

Maybe a surprise party wasn't the best idea A play about trying but not really managing to help Flesh A group of teenagers wake up in a forest with no clue how they got there They find themselves separated into two different teams but have no idea what game they are expected to play With no food no water and seemingly no chance of escape it's only a matter of time before things start to get drastic But whose side are people on and how far will they go to survive Ageless In a not too distant future Temples pharmaceutical corporation has quite literally changed the face of ageing Their miracle drug keeps its users looking perpetually teenage With an ever youthful population how can society support those who are genuinely young The Small Hours It's the middle of the night and Peebs and Epi are the only students left at school over half term At the end of their night out former step siblings Red and Jazz try to navigate their reunion With only a couple of hours until morning Jaffa tries to help Keesh finish an essay As day breaks Wolfie is getting up the courage to confess a secret to VJ at a party Their choices are small yet momentous The hours are small but feel very very long And when the night finally ends the future is waiting all of it terra A group of classmates is torn apart by the opportunity to perform their own dance As they disagree and bicker two distinct physical groups emerge and separate into opposing teams When a strange outsider appears out of step with everyone else the divide is disrupted A contemporary narrative dance piece about individuality community and heritage Variations Thirteen year old Alice wishes her life was completely different She wakes up one morning to find that her life is different In fact it's so different that all she wants to do is get back to normality But how does she do that
