Borchers,2012-11-21 Persuasion is omnipresent in today's media saturated society. From politicians to advertisers to friends and colleagues, persuaders are using increasingly sophisticated strategies to influence our attitudes, beliefs, and behaviors. Fortunately, this updated edition of Persuasion in the Media Age provides a timely, solid understanding of the methods used by contemporary persuaders and offers strategies to help readers become critical consumers of persuasion. Borchers begins with the premise that contemporary culture has been forever changed by electronic media and explores the way media technologies have influenced the study and practice of persuasion. He draws from a wide variety of scholars, bringing together the latest perspectives and research as well as foundational concepts. The Third Edition spotlights the influence of social media, presents storytelling as a key driver for persuasion, and incorporates updated examples that reflect recent political campaigns and developments in popular culture. This pedagogically rich, illustrated volume includes learning objectives, key terms, discussion questions, and activities that encourage students to apply chapter content to their everyday experiences. Internet-based exercises provide practical, relevant opportunities for students to evaluate Web-based persuasion, while ethics cases explore compelling issues that have emerged in today's media-dominated environment. The New York Times Magazine, 2005 The Wall Street Journal, 1986 Bet for Fun and Win Robert William Pearce, 2009-02-18 Bet for fun and WIN is a very comprehensive and easy read of varying aspects of the author's twenty years' experience of betting on the horses. It describes how to study the form and odds and looks at the factors affecting the potential performance of horses, like the ground, weather, course, distance, jockey, trainer, speed, and other issues. Different types of bets are stated, and the times when to be wary to minimise losses and maximise gains. There isn't another book on the market like this one.
