Kinship and Performance in the Black and Green Atlantic Kathleen Gough, 2013-11-07 Kinship and Performance in the Black and Green Atlantic advances an innovative and compelling approach to writing comparative studies of performance in transnational intercultural relation to one another Its chosen subject in this case is the cultural and political intersection of African and Irish diasporic peoples and movements Gough approaches her subject via five key flashpoints in Black Green relations moving from the mid nineteenth century to the early twenty first century In turn each of these is related to mediums of performance that were prevalent at the time such as abolitionist oratory and melodrama photography and tableaux architecture and folk drama television and political demonstrations and visual art and dramaturgy By examining the unlikely kinship between social actors such as Ida B Wells and Maud Gonne Lady Augusta Gregory and Zora Neale Hurston and

Bernadette Devlin and Alice Childress along with a host of old and new theatrical characters this book explores how a transmedial investigation of gender community and performance allows for a revision of historiography in Atlantic studies while the study itself revises and reimagines key concepts central to performance studies In 2014 Kinship and Performance was given the Errol Hill Award for Outstanding Scholarship in African American Theatre from the American Society for Theatre Research

The Radical Ecology of the Shelleys Colin Carman, 2018-11-07 The Radical Ecology of the Shelleys Eros and Environment is the first full length study to explore a radically queer ecology at work in writings by Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley as their discussions of nature and the natural consistently link ecology and erotic practice Initiated by Timothy Morton in 2010 as a hybrid of two schools of thinking about nature queer ecology combines the alertness of environmentalists to constructions of the natural with efforts of sexuality scholars to denaturalize identity and to expose sexuality as a culture bound construct Conceptions of place are central to this investigation not only because an attachment to place is traditionally thought to be the ontological basis of all environmental consciousness e.g. think globally act locally but because these two Romantic writers underscore the dynamic interaction between a person's natural surroundings and his/her interpersonal attachments The poetical and prose writings of the Shelleys claim our special attention because of their unusual conception of the oikos the etymological root of ecology to mean both local grounds and the social often domestic places in which people dwell and desire The overarching thesis of this book asserts that proto ecological theories in Romantic era England cannot be understood separately from discourses related to married family life and the texts considered demonstrate the comingling of earthly and erotic enjoyment The issues raised by Eros and Environment are fundamental not only to literary and queer history but to all humanistic studies They render the study of nature from a queer perspective a matter of intense interest to scholars in numerous disciplines ranging from ecocriticism and the natural sciences including climate studies to feminist criticism and sexuality studies
